Collecting English Watercolours:

Collecting English Watercolours Derek Plint Clifford, 1976 English Watercolours in the Collection of C.F.J. Beusire Walker Art Gallery, 1970 The Spooner Collection of British Watercolours at the Courtauld Institute Gallery Michael Broughton, William Clarke, Courtauld Institute of Art, Joanna Selborne, Courtauld Institute Galleries, 2005 The Spooner Collection of watercolours is one of the finest of its kind featuring all the leading artists of the period 1750-1850. Notable among them are watercolours of the Lake District by John White Abbott and rural scenes by several artists: Gainsborough, Turner, Cozens, Rowlandson, Francis Towne, Samuel Palmer. Architecture dominates the setting in works by Girtin, Cotman and Sandby. The essays accompanying the catalogue discuss outdoor painting and the role of memory in watercolour painting, the connoisseurship and attitudes towards watercolours and give a brief biography of William Wycliffe Spooner himself. This complete catalogue of the collection bequeathed by Spooner to the Courtauld Institute is published on the occasion of a touring exhibition of select works from the collection showing at The Worsworth Trust, Grasmere, The Huntingdon Library, California and the Courtauld Institute Gallery, London, 2005-2006. Great British Watercolours Matthew Hargraves, 2007-01-01 Paul Mellon 1907-1999 assembled one of the world's greatest collections of British drawings and watercolours. In his memoirs he wrote of their beauty and freshness, their immediacy and sureness of technique, their comprehensiveness of subject matter, their vital qualities, their Englishness. This catalogue celebrating the centenary of Mellon's birth features eighty-eight outstanding watercolours from the fifty thousand works of art on paper with which he endowed the Yale Center for British Art. The selection spans the emergence of watercolor painting in the mid-18th century to its apogee in the mid-19th. These works highlight the diversity of British watercolours, showcasing both landscape and figurative works by some of the principal artists working in the medium, including Thomas Gainsborough, Thomas Rowlandson, William Blake and J.M.W. Turner. British Watercolours from the Oppé Collection Tate Gallery, Anne Lyles, Robin Hamlyn, 1997. Published to accompany exhibition held at the Tate Gallery, 10-9-30-11-1997. English Watercolours and Other Drawings National Gallery of Scotland, Department of Prints and Drawings, 1979. English Watercolours Graham Reynolds, 1998-04-21. English artists have made a unique contribution to the art of watercolor painting. In no other Western country has this very attractive medium been used so consistently or for works of such stature as in England between 1750 and the present day. In this general survey of the whole period, Graham Reynolds, formerly Keeper of Paintings and of Prints and Drawings at the Victoria and Albert Museum, discusses the paintings of over 100 artists, including the well-known watercolorists such as Cozens, Girtin, Cotman and De Wint, as well as artists who are equally known for their work in other media: Gainsborough, Turner, Constable, Sargent, Henry Moore. The 140 illustrations, 64 in color, show the work of these and lesser-known artists and reveal the versatility of this medium, so the reader will be introduced to its use for illustrative, caricature and portraiture, as well as to the finest examples of traditional landscape watercolours. British Watercolours
