Collins Soundbites William Wymark Jacobs, Mary Hooper, 2002-05-20 The White family are delighted when a friend gives them a monkey's paw that will grant them three wishes. They gain a little but at what cost? The paw turns happiness to fear and despair. Collins Soundbites is a revolutionary series of readers for students who are struggling to achieve NC level 4 at Key Stage 3. The Monkey's Paw has a Reading Age of 8-9 with 40 words per page. Six readers are published in a pack at each stage or level of ability. Soundbites is the first series of readers for students with poor literacy that delivers the curriculum. Also available are Mixed Packs that contain six different readers at each of the three stages: stage 1 reading age 6-7, stage 2 age 7-8, stage 3 age 8-9. Two thirds of each book is narrative style text. One third of each book covers information using a variety of text types such as autobiographies, biographies, journals, diaries, letters, personal and formal travel writing, leaflets, reports, reviews, adverts, newspaper magazine articles, tables. Specialised difficult or technical vocabulary explained on the page plus a one page glossary at the end. The topics covered address the KS3 curriculum in different areas. Photocopyable.

Collins Soundbites John Foster, 2001-04-20 Each Collins Soundbites is a series of progressive graded readers on three ability levels and reading ages aimed at reluctant readers in Key Stages 3 and 4. There are three packs, one for each ability level. Each pack contains six copies of an illustrated reader on a different topic. Each reader addresses an aspect of the curriculum by means of telling a story, thus allowing SENCOs to encourage students' literacy skills while delivering the curriculum. Some basic technical vocabulary is introduced in each reader and defined both on the page and in a glossary at the end of the book. The story contained within each book is supported by some information in the form of carefully presented facts, figures, and charts selected to appeal to boys.
