Dynamic Sumo:

Dynamic Sumo Clyde Newton, Gerald J. Toff, 1994      With God on their Side Timothy Chandler, Tara Magdalinski, 2005-07-12 Sport and religion are cultural institutions with a global reach Each is characterised by ritualised performance and by the ecstatic devotion of its followers whether in the sports arena or the cathedral of worship This fascinating collection is the first to examine in detail the relationship between these two cultural institutions from an international religiously pluralistic perspective It illuminates the role of sport and religion in the social formation of collective groups and explores how sport might operate in the service of a religious community The book offers a series of cutting edge contemporary historical case studies wide ranging in their social and religious contexts It presents important new work on the following fascinating topics sport and Catholicism in Northern Ireland Shinto and sumo in Japan women sport and the American Jewish identity religion race and rugby in South Africa sport and Islam in France and North Africa sport and Christian fundamentalism in the US Muhammad Ali and the Nation of Islam With God on their Side is vital reading for all students of the history sociology and culture of sport It also presents important new research material that will be of interest to religious studies students historians and anthropologists

Japanese Cultural Nationalism Roy Starrs, 2021-10-01 Based on the premise that Japanese cultural nationalism has been and is a major cultural historical force throughout the Asia Pacific this book has dual focus Part 1 explores Japanese literature philosophy education politics diplomacy music Part 2 extends Japanese role to Asia Pacific at large Part One explores significant and influential expressions of cultural nationalism in Japanese literature philosophy education politics diplomacy music and popular culture Part Two widens the focus to Asia Pacific at large and examines the role of Japanese cultural nationalist discourse in the island nation s relations with its regional neighbours China being the main focus Topics include Meiji racial theory the varieties of Japanese imperialist ideology nationalist attitudes towards China Kyoto School Sinology resistance to foreign yakozuna in sumo wrestling

Grappling and Throwing From the Near and Far East Michael DeMarco, 2019-01-19 Soon after birth tiger cubs are instinctively drawn to wrestling Eventually their play transforms into real skills of potentially lethal efficiency Humans have done the same In this anthology you will find unique combative techniques found in some cultures as well as some techniques that are universal Allen Pittman gives a portrayal of Dr Tim Geoghegan s particular blend of Eastern and Western wrestling and his formidable arsenal for grappling and throwing In another chapter Pittman focuses on the shoulder throw The technical variations seem endless for this valued movement Steve Scott illustrates the cross body armlock according to skills he hopes will give readers a better understanding and mastery of this armlock His following chapter shows a rare Russian technique Known as the Kharbarelli Pick up it is a good example of how different cultures and their unique grappling traditions have been adopted outside their original location The chapter on the carotid choke is presented from the perspectives of a martial arts instructor and that of a physician The application effects and ramifications of drug usage and mental state are discussed in detail Tim Cartmell explains the key concepts of sticking and following as they apply to throwing methods found in Chinese xingyi taiji and bagua The concepts are explained and illustrated with examples of sample techniques David Allen s writes on the Mongolian Nadaam Festival Athletes from all over the country assemble to compete in horse racing archery and wrestling Mongolian wrestling is probably the least watched martial art in the world The author s photo expos brings the festival to us The chapter by Burdick Wolske and Daneshagar gives us a rare view into the Persian grappling tradition Iran s national sport is the strength training system found in the house of strength where bodybuilders and wrestlers are steeped in both Zarathrushran and Islamic traditions The following chapter by Zhang Yun is on the throwing art of Shuai Jiao It includes history and development analysis of fighting principles details of hand and footwork body movement training methods training equipment relationship with other Chinese styles and demonstrations of applications The final article focuses on sumo with some parallels being drawn between sumo and mixed martial arts Techniques and tactics are presented so readers might add some of these sumo moves to their own martial arts repertoire
