Bread Winner:

The Rise and Decline of the Male Breadwinner Family? Angélique Janssens,1998-04-09 The essays look at the origins and expansion of different patterns of breadwinning

Breadwinners Melissa Hogenboom,2025-08-14 A NEW SCIENTIST BEST POPULAR SCIENCE BOOK OF 2025 Huge social changes occurring in real time are leading us to rethink traditional roles in our homes workplaces and in society So why do women who outearn their male partners still tend to do more housework and childcare Why are unemployed men generally happier if their female partners are also unemployed Why is unpaid labour still seen as a less important contribution than paid work within family units In Breadwinners award winning science journalist Melissa Hogenboom interviews dozens of female breadwinners stay at home dads and same sex couples comparing their stories to the latest research to demonstrate the consequences of changing dynamics She reveals how pursuing and maintaining power is a key part of every human interaction affecting every area of our lives Breadwinners shows how the closer we look the easier it is to see the influence of power structures all around us Ultimately it gives readers the tools to address imbalances and improve our relationships at home and at work If we can share power more equally we can improve not only our own wellbeing but also recognise how to dismantle social structures that are seemingly set in stone

Gender, Equality and Welfare States Diane Sainsbury,1996-08-28 What differences do welfare state variations make for women How do women and men fare in different welfare states Diane Sainsbury answers these questions by analysing the situation in countries whose welfare state policies differ in significant ways the United States the United Kingdom Sweden and the Netherlands Building on feminist criticisms of mainstream research Professor Sainsbury reconceptualises the crucial dimensions of variation notably those relevant to gender She determines the extent to which legislation reflects and perpetuates the gendered division of labour in the family and society as well as what types of policy alter gender relations in social provision She thereby increases our understanding of how policy mechanisms especially the bases of entitlement exclude or incorporate women and offers constructive proposals for securing greater equality between women and men
