and wonderful thing He sent his own dear Son down from Heaven to join the world and live with people like you and me for a while So begins A Child s Life of Jesus We follow the life of God s Son from the Annunciation through the Resurrection and his return to live with God We see his kindness to others the miracles he performed and the stories he told Oursler reminds us however that the story is not finished yet Adults and children today are a part of the story It is up to us to invite Jesus into our hearts and live as he would have us live If we live as Jesus would have us live the world will be a wonderful peaceful place
