

IN BRIEF

LABOUR APPROACHES TO CHINA

Labour's international policy can only be strong if its China policy is strong. UK-China relations are complex, challenging and multi-faceted, with few straightforward answers or approaches. A fundamental principle of Labour Party foreign policy is the promotion of human rights and social justice worldwide. While in practice this has to be balanced with economic, trade and diplomatic relations, some situations require an explicit and unequivocal position.

As a short form briefing, this paper provides bitesize policy analysis on selected themes. It is integral that Labour continues to develop a comprehensive and far-reaching overall strategy on China. The broader focus of any Labour China policy should be matched with improving China literacy and knowledge within the UK. Ensuring greater language, cultural, and institutional knowledge of China will make the UK better equipped for engagement with China in all forms.
