Parliamentary Institutions in Regional and International Governance Andrea Cofelice, 2018-09-25 This volume offers an original and theoretically grounded conceptualization and measurement of international parliamentary institutions and their role in ensuring the accountability of regional international organizations Through a comparative analysis of the establishment evolution institutional organization oversight and policymaking functions of 22 parliamentary institutions mainly from European African and Latin American regional international organizations the book serves a twofold purpose First it allows assessment of the extent to which parliamentary institutions have measurable influence on the outcome of regional organizations decision making processes Second drawing on the literature on new institutionalism and comparative regionalism the volume investigates the conditions under which the influence of parliamentary institutions is expected to grow thus advancing the understanding of the variation and development of this poorly explored type of international institution The book is aimed at scholars of global governance international organization and comparative regionalism and will also be of interest to parliamentarians and parliamentary practitioners from national and international institutions

Comparative Area Studies Ariel I. Ahram, Patrick Köllner, Rudra Sil, 2018-01-03 In Comparative Area Studies the editors and contributors are motivated by two basic convictions first that intensive regional research remains indispensable to the social sciences and second that this research risks becoming marginalized in the absence of concerted efforts to link it to disciplinary concepts and theories that have relevance beyond a single region
