Our Daily Meds Melody Petersen,2010-07-01 In the last thirty years the big pharmaceutical companies have transformed themselves into marketing machines selling dangerous medicines as if they were Coca Cola or Cadillacs They pitch drugs with video games and soft cuddly toys for children promote them in churches and subways at NASCAR races and state fairs They ve become experts at promoting fear of disease just so they can sell us hope No question drugs can save lives But the relentless marketing that has enriched corporate executives and sent stock prices soaring has come with a dark side Prescription pills taken as directed by physicians are estimated to kill one American every five minutes And that figure doesn t reflect the damage done as the overmedicated take to the roads Our Daily Meds connects the dots for the first time to show how corporate salesmanship has triumphed over science inside the biggest pharmaceutical companies and in turn how this promotion driven industry has taken over the practice of medicine and is changing American life It is an ageless story of the battle between good and evil with potentially life changing consequences for everyone not just the 65 percent of Americans who unscrew a prescription cap every day An industry with the promise to help so many is now leaving a legacy of needless harm The Publishers Weekly ,2005 The Best of Guideposts GUIDEPOSTS,2005 Renovating Rhetoric in

Christian Tradition Elizabeth Vander Lei,Thomas Amorose,Beth Daniell,Anne Ruggles Gere,2014-02-28 Throughout history determined individuals have appropriated and reconstructed rhetorical and religious resources to create effective arguments In the process they have remade both themselves and their communities This edited volume offers notable examples of these reconstructions ranging from the formation of Christianity to questions about the relationship of religious and academic ways of knowing The initial chapters explore historic challenges to Christian doctrines and gender roles Contributors examine Mormon women s campaigns for the recognition of their sect women s suffrage and the statehood of Utah the Seventh day Adventist challenge to the mainstream designation of Sunday as the Sabbath a female minister who confronted the gendered tenets of early Methodism and created her own sacred spaces women who across three centuries fashioned an apostolic voice of humble authority rooted in spiritual conversion and members of the Woman s Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church who redefined notions of women s intellectual capacity and appropriate fields for work from the Civil War through World War II Considering contemporary learning environments other contributors explore resources that can help faculty and students of composition and rhetoric consider more fully the relations of religion and academic work These contributors call upon the work of theologians philosophers and biblical scholars to propose strategies for building trust through communication The final chapters examine the writings of Apostle Paul and his use of Jewish forms of argumentation and provide an overarching discussion of how the Christian tradition has resisted rhetorical renovation and in the process missed opportunities to renovate spiritual belief
