Boy With An R In His Hand:

The Boy with an R in His Hand James Reaney, 1980-05 It is a pleasure to find that James Reaney's first book for children first published by Macmillan of Canada in 1965 has just been re-issued in a handsome paperback edition complete with the original illustrations by Leo Rampen. The Boy with an R in His Hand tells the story of two orphan brothers who arrive in York from the Red River Settlement in 1826 and quickly become involved with the complex politics of Upper Canada. Joel the elder brother aligns himself with the Family Compact and his overbearing stuffy uncle while Alex more imaginative and courageous becomes an apprentice to William Lyon Mackenzie at the Colonial Advocate. There he and the reader learn in some detail about Mackenzie's press and the art of type setting. Alex rather improbably had it set up right and from that moment on his progress in the skill of type setting was like a house on fire. This is a satisfying fast-moving story full of incident and detail about colonial life. It climaxes with the wrecking of Mackenzie's printshop and press by a band of young Tories acting with the implicit approval of the government at the end of which Alex finds a single capital R his souvenir of life as a printer's apprentice. Recommended for ages nine and up as a piece of Canadiana which enlivens history for the young reader. James Reaney is widely regarded as one of Canada's finest authors, a writer who is comfortable with a wide variety of literary forms. His very first book The Red Heart (1949) won the Governor General's Award; he would receive this honour again in 1958 and 1962. From 1960 to 1971 Reaney edited the literary magazine Alphabet. Reaney is perhaps best known for his many successful plays which include the landmark trilogy The Donnellys and his popular books for young adults such as The Boy with an R in His Hand (1965) and Take the Big Picture (1986). He has also written the libretti for a trilogy of operas on themes from Canadian history. The first Serenade, with music by Harry Somers, premiered in 1990 at Sharon Temple.
