Development Process A Spatial Perspectiv:

The Development Process Akin L. Mabogunje,1989

The Development Process Akin Mabogunje,2015-12-14

Written from the perspective of developing countries this book discusses the development process from a spatial perspective focussing particularly on the evoluion of the intra national space economy With emphasis on African nations this book offers a distinctive interpretation of the current situation and policy prescriptions differing significantly from previous literature in the area

Rethinking Institutions, Processes and Development in Africa Ernest Aniche,Toyin Falola,2021-10-18

African scholarship concerning the nexus between institutions and development is still dominated by the economic perspective of development despite the emergence of the humanistic perspective of development The humanistic perspective is a more embracing encompassing and comprehensive view of development than its economic counterpart and offers a better explanation of the African situation It is essential to examine the relationships between democratic political institutions and human development This collection examines democratic institutions and processes in post independence Africa The contributors examine the political institutional processes in post colonial Africa evaluating the workings of institutions such as education bureaucracy interest groups trade unions and problems of enforcements in Africa It also discusses the relevance of creative arts for political socialization as well as the role effects of privatization on service delivery in contemporary African societies

Key Thinkers on Space and Place Mary Gilmartin,Phil Hubbard,Rob Kitchin,Sue Roberts,2024-05-11

Space and place are at the heart of how geographers and sociologists think This updated edition of the essential undergraduate text will introduce you to the most influential thinkers in the tradition of social theory with a new focus on the past fifty years This book is designed to engage with theoretical debates in human geography through the individuals who have made the most significant contributions to this field This will show you how ideas are shaped by contexts and how those ideas in turn effect change This book shows how theoretical understandings evolve shift and change It also highlights the connections between different thinkers whose ideas are developed in collaboration with or in reaction to others Spatial thought is never developed in a vacuum but is always constructed by individuals and groups of people located in particular institutional and social structures with their own sets of personal and political beliefs The biographical approach of this book reveals how individual thinkers draw on a rich legacy of ideas from past and contemporary generations With increased coverage of international and female thinkers as well as those who work against Eurocentric notions of space and place this book reveals the exciting reorientation of Geography towards new ideas and methods in the last decade Each entry contextualises its subject within on going inter disciplinary debates and important political moments as well as highlighting connections between different thinkers Together the chapters uncover the rich and diverse evolution of social theory equipping you with the foundational ideas of geographical thought Each entry offers the following components i a short biography ii an explanation of ideas iii an exploration of how their ideas have been used and critiqued iv a selective
