Dialogism Bakhtin And His World:

Dialogism Michael Holquist, 2002 Holquist's masterly study draws on all of Bakhtin's known writings providing a comprehensive account of his achievement. Widely acknowledged as an exceptional guide to Bakhtin and dialogics, this book now includes a new introduction, concluding chapter, and a fully updated bibliography. He argues that Bakhtin's work gains coherence through his commitment to the concept of dialogue, examining Bakhtin's dialogues with theorists such as Saussure, Freud, Marx, and Lukacs, as well as other thinkers whose connection with Bakhtin has previously been ignored. Dialogism also includes dialogic readings of major literary texts: Mary Shelley's Frankenstein, Gogol's The Notes of a Madman, and Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby, which provide another dimension of dialogue with dialogue. Dialogism Michael Holquist, 1990

Dialogism Michael Holquist, 2002 Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory Irene Rima Makaryk, 1993-01-01 The last half of the twentieth century has seen the emergence of literary theory as a new discipline. As with any body of scholarship, various schools of thought exist and sometimes conflict within it. I. R. Makaryk has compiled a welcome guide to the field. Accessible and jargon-free, the Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory provides lucid, concise explanations of myriad approaches to literature that have arisen over the past forty years. Some 170 scholars from around the world have contributed their expertise to this volume. Their work is organized into three parts. In Part I, forty evaluative essays examine the historical and cultural context out of which new schools of thought and approaches to literature arose. The essays also discuss the uses and limitations of the various schools and the key issues they address. Part II focuses on individual theorists. It provides a more detailed picture of the network of scholars, not always easily pigeonholed into the categories of Part I. This second section analyses the individual achievements, as well as the influence of specific scholars, and places them in a larger critical context. Part III deals with the vocabulary of literary theory. It identifies significant complex terms, places them in context, and explains their origins and use. Accessibility is a key feature of the work. By avoiding jargon, providing mini-bibliographies, and cross-referencing throughout, Makaryk has provided an indispensable tool for literary theorists and historians, and for all scholars and students of contemporary criticism and culture. A Cartographic Journey of Race, Gender and Power Syrrina Ahsan Ali Haque, Sameer Afzal, 2021-05-14 This book locates spatial dimensions possible for a global identity while incorporating the presence of collaborative and contentious religious, psycho-social, and physical borders. It highlights the significance of space in the construction of racial, gender, religious, cultural, and idiosyncrasies, where private and public space projects the power mechanisms which allocate borders. The literary narratives discussed in this collection project a trajectory of voices of the East and West, male and female, crossing boundaries between identity, race, gender, and class. The book proffers that spatial borders are social constructs to propagate the power mechanisms of hierarchical structures, defying imbrications explored here, which may be used to reflect diversity as a model for global space. These explorations are journeys back and forth in time and space towards hierarchies formed through the imposition of borders defining race gender and power which may be considered post in the postmodern postcolonial post 9 11 post secular and postfeminist senses Learning to See: The Meanings, Modes and Methods of Visual Literacy Michael

Heitkemper-Yates, Katarzyna Kaczmarczyk, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 If indeed Vision is the art of seeing what is invisible to others as Jonathan Swift has so famously phrased it then visual literacy is the art of translating the seen through image word and gesture so that the invisible can be made visible to others In other words visual literacy specifies a process of articulation that employs both sight and insight in the service of interpreting the language of the image reading the narrative of the graphic and deciphering the codes and modes of the visual This volume represents an attempt to convey some of the many ideas surrounding visual literacy and advance the interdisciplinary field of visual literacy studies toward new areas of research and inquiry Towards the Dignity of Difference? Mojtaba

Mahdavi, 2016-02-24 The rise of popular social movements throughout the Middle East North Africa Europe and North America in 2011 challenged two hegemonic discourses of the post Cold War era Francis Fukuyama s The End of History and Samuel Huntington s The Clash of Civilizations The quest for genuine democracy and social justice and the backlash against the neoliberal order is a common theme in the global mass protests in the West and the East This is no less than a discursive paradigm shift a new beginning to the history a move towards new alternatives to the status quo This book is about difference and dialogue it embraces The Dignity of Difference and promotes dialogue However it also demonstrates the limits of dialogue as a useful and universal approach for resolving conflicts particularly in cases involving asymmetric and unequal power relations The distinguished group of authors suggests in this volume that there is a third way of addressing global tensions one that rejects the extremes of both universalism and particularism This third way is a radical call for an epistemic shift in our understanding of us other and good evil a radical approach toward accommodating difference as well as embracing the plural concept of the good The authors strengthen their alternative approach with a practical policy guide by challenging existing policies that either exclude or assimilate other cultures that wage the constructed global war on terror and that impose a western neo liberal discourse on non western societies This important book will be essential reading for all those studying civilizations globalization foreign policy peace and security studies multiculturalism and ethnicity regionalism global governance and international political economy Walking with the Mud Flower Collective Stina Busman

Jost, 2014-10-01 Arguing for a retrieval of the landmark work God s Fierce Whimsy Stina Busman Jost establishes the critical importance of this volume for the construction of a dialogic theological method This is accomplished through a close reading of God s Fierce Whimsy in which the author identifies key methodological characteristics informing the volume s formation Critical importance also is established through interviews with the volume s authors the Mud Flower Collective which included Katie G Cannon Beverly W Harrison Carter Heyward Ada Mar a Isasi D az Bess B Johnson Delores Williams Mary D Pellauer and Nancy D Richardson Undergirding this endeavor is a recognition of the theoretical importance of difference to the project of theological construction and the vital form of the dialogic as constitutive of theological practice this is carried forward through engagement with the pivotal theorists Martin Buber and Mikhail Bakhtin who helped pioneer the philosophical and literary critical importance of otherness difference and dialogue Finally the author constructively engages recent developments in feminist theologies and postcolonial theories ultimately making the argument that a dialogic theological method is relevant for the doing of theology today

Nightmare: From Literary Experiments to Cultural Project Dina Khapaeva, 2012-11-13 What is a nightmare as a psychological experience a literary experiment and a cultural project Why has experiencing a nightmare under the guise of reading a novel watching a film or playing a video game become a persistent requirement of contemporary mass culture By answering these questions which have not been addressed by literary criticism and cultural studies we can interpret anew the texts of classic authors Charles Maturin Nikolai Gogol Fyodor Dostoevsky Thomas Mann Howard Philips Lovecraft and Victor Pelevin carry out bold experiments on their heroes and readers as they seek to investigate the nature of nightmare in their works This book examines their prose to reveal the unstudied features of the nightmare as a mental state and traces the mosaic of coincidences leading from literary experiments to today s culture of nightmare consumption

Postmodernist Intertextuality in David Mitchell's Cloud Atlas Martina Hrubes, 2008-07-09 Thesis M A from the year 2008 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 10 University of Frankfurt Main Institut f r England und Amerikastudien language English abstract The title of this study is Postmodernist Intertextuality in David Mitchell s Cloud Atlas and is based on the following hypotheses 1 There is a particular kind of intertextuality specific to postmodernist literature that differs from previous uses of intertextual references 2 Postmodernist intertextuality is deconstructive self reflexive and critical of Western hegemonic discourses and metanarratives 3 This specific kind of intertextuality is a key element of postmodernist art The first part of this work is going to outline some of the social and historical developments that have been associated with the postmodern condition and the rise of new art forms which respond to these changes Lyotard s description of postmodernity as an age that is marked by its profound incredulity toward metanarratives The Postmodern Condition A Report on Knowledge xxiv is of particular significance to this study especially his critique of the so called Enlightenment narrative xxiii with its humanist values This definition helps understand the interaction between postmodern theory and postmodernist art which are both directed against the same universalist assumptions In the second part of this study the concept of postmodernist intertextuality is applied to David Mitchell s novel Cloud Atlas

To Kill a Text Ilinca Sarifopol-Johnston, 1995 Ilinca Zarifopol Johnston s book traces the covert manifestations of Hugo s romantic notion of the novel through later French and English realism arguing that the anachronistic traces of past literary periods are always at work defining the aims of the present no matter how radical a new departure it seems or tries to be

Voicing Relationships Leslie A. Baxter, 2010-01-19 One of the field's most respected scholars advances a dialogic perspective on communication in personal and familial relationships presenting the next iteration of relational dialectics theory RDT This is an excellent book and moves one of the major theories in the social sciences forward in very innovative ways Indeed this book extends beyond RDT by addressing limitations in the family interpersonal and personal relationships literature I believe this book will prompt many discussions among theorists and researchers in those areas and has the potential to provide exciting new directions in the study of relationships Glen H Stamp Ball State University Leslie A Baxter is offering up something here that is desperately needed and fills a big hole for those who adopt RDT as their theoretical framework I found the conceptual content of the book to be clear compelling and provoking The chapter on contrapuntal analysis is the only one of its kind Melissa Wood Alem n James Madison University

Voicing Relationships presents a dialogic perspective on relating inspired by the dialogism work of the Russian theorist of literature and culture Mikhail Bakhtin Written by Leslie A Baxter one of the theory's originators this groundbreaking book presents the next iteration of the theory along with a methodological primer for contrapuntal analysis that includes guiding readers through a sample analysis Developing a rich palette of dialogic concepts useful in the study of interpersonal communication the book's central argument is that meaning making emerges from the clash of competing systems of meaning or discourses Relationship communication is embedded in culture history difference and conceptions of the ideal In addition the book gives us a method by which to study communication dialogically contrapuntal analysis

Key Features

- Centers communication at the heart of relationships with an interdisciplinary focus on communication from fields such as psychology social work and sociology
- Offers an up to date distillation of two decades of relevant research to organize major findings and issues
- Moves scholars and students beyond simplistic uses of relational dialectics or using the dialectical pairs in overly simplistic cookie cutter ways
- Provides scholars and students with guidance in using RDT to guide their own research

Intended Audience Voicing Relationships is ideal for use in a wide range of courses such as Interpersonal Communication Family Studies Couples Marriage and Family and Counseling

The German Novel in the Twentieth Century David R. Midgley, 1993 From the demise of realism to the origins and growth of modernism this book examines 20th century German writing It gives an account of developments in narrative technique as German novelists lived through a century of cultural and political change culminating in the Reunification Using selected novels by Fontane Rilke Musil Kafka Hesse Doblin Thomas Mann Gunter Grass Uwe Johnson and Christa Wolf the book sets out close studies of the relationship between theme and technique It shows how authors questioned and subverted the conventions of 19th century literary realism yet were still heavily influenced by it Easing the transition of literary criticism from a realist approach to a more modern perception of literature the book also includes a full guide to further reading
