McClorey,2015-07-18 Excerpt from The Brazen Serpent One of the paradoxes of Christianity is the obliviousness of most so called Christians with regard to Christ Christ stands before men to show them how to live and few consider Him Isaias said of Him A Child is given to us the Prince of Peace But the majority of men will not be led by the Child nor accept His peace They are sufficient unto themselves They can play the game of life without His direction He will do for pietists but not for practical men of the world He is relegated to the church He has little place in the office the workshop and society He will do for the moment of death but not for the busy years of life About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Brazen Serpent; Or Life Coming Through Death Thomas Erskine (of Linlathen, Advocate.),1831
