Development Planning:

Development Planning Concepts and Tools for Planners, Managers and Facilitators Reidar Dale, 2005 Development Planning Albert Waterston, 1965 Urban and Regional Development Planning Dennis A. Rondinelli, 2019-06-30 Widely accepted principles and assumptions of American planning theory come under heavy fire in this refreshing and provocative book. The author's main contention is that contrary to current supposition development planning is in practice a highly political activity. Professor Rondinelli maintains that it is because the dynamics of the policy making process are not properly understood that current planning prescriptions are inadequate when they are applied within organizationally complex urban regions. To illustrate his argument he offers a case history of federally aided redevelopment programs for an urban region in northeastern Pennsylvania that experienced three decades of economic decline. He further believes that existing programs of planning education do not provide the skills, knowledge and experience necessary for effective management of urban change. Curricula must be reoriented, he says, if planners are to have an impact on future urban and regional development. Finally, he sets forth positive alternatives to current planning processes, stressing the need for planning theory and practice that recognize and cope with the characteristics of the complex policy making system.

FINANCE AND CONTINENTAL DEVELOPMENT PLAN MARCO KAMANGO, MARCO WEMBULUA KAMANGO ALBERTOVICH, 2020-07-16 Public domestic resources remain a major instrument of development plan via the financial part as they are the largest numerically with a total external financial flows into Africa amounted to 200 billion and domestic taxes 530 billion OECD AFDB 2014. In this book the international economist and transcontinental expert Marco Kamango Wembulua Albertovich proposes as the direct key to financial sustainability and African self sufficiency domestic resources in association with proactive leadership and continental commitment at both the political and institutional levels for achieving a successful national then continental development.
