Transactions of the Gynaecological Society of Boston Gynaecological Society of Boston,1905 The Global Connections of Gandhāran Art Wannaporn Rienjang,Peter Stewart,2020-09-02 Gandh ran art is often regarded as the epitome of cultural exchange in antiquity The ancient region of Gandh ra centred on what is now the northern tip of Pakistan has been called the crossroads of Asia The Buddhist art produced in and around this area in the first few centuries AD exhibits extraordinary connections with other traditions across Asia and as far as the Mediterranean Since the nineteenth century the Graeco Roman associations of Gandh ran art have attracted particular attention Classically educated soldiers and administrators of that era were astonished by the uncanny resemblance of many works of Gandh ran sculpture to Greek and Roman art made thousands of miles to the west More than a century later we can recognize that the Gandh ran artists appropriation of classical iconography and styles was diverse and extensive but the explanation of this influence remains puzzling and elusive The Gandh ra Connections project at the University of Oxford s Classical Art Research Centre was initiated principally to cast new light on this old problem This volume is the third set of proceedings of the project s annual workshop and the first to address directly the question of cross cultural influence on and by Gandh ran art The contributors wrestle with old controversies particularly the notion that Gandh ran art is a legacy of Hellenistic Greek rule in Central Asia and the growing consensus around the important role of the Roman Empire in shaping it But they also seek to present a more complex and expansive view of the networks in which Gandh ra was embedded Adopting a global perspective on the subject they examine aspects of Gandh ra s connections both within and beyond South Asia and Central Asia including the profound influence which Gandh ran art itself had on the development of Buddhist art in China and India
