Fortner, Mark Fackler, 2010 The authors in this book share three convictions First our communicative efforts should reflect a genuine love for humankind Second all human beings reflect values for both good and ill And communication and culture are critical in this process What people say matters What they do as journalists broadcasters filmmakers advertisers and teachers matter even more because professional communicators have access to information and audiences who can be encouraged to do either 21st Century Communication: A Reference Handbook William F.
