A Gift for My Son Mary Wuestefeld, 2000. Many years ago I was one of those naive expectant mothers who thought that a simple formula of faith, love, and discipline would produce the perfect child. Those who had a problem child, I surmised, either didn't have enough religion in their home, didn't love their child enough, or didn't discipline him/her enough. So when, much to my dismay and perplexity, my child began to display chronic problem behaviors, I blamed myself. To make matters worse, the counselors we sought out for help blamed me also. As I searched for answers during this difficult time, however, I discovered many things about myself, my son, human nature, and God that profoundly changed my views on parenting and religion. My discoveries also led to a better understanding of God's unconditional love and enabled me to give this most precious of all gifts to my first-born child. My life has been tremendously blessed by going through this most challenging experience, and I hope as you read my story that your life and your parenting experience will be enriched also.
