Guidance Counselor Introduction Letter to Parents

March 1, 2068

[Recipient's Name]
[Recipient's Address]

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. My name is [YOUR NAME], and I am very excited to serve as the new Guidance Counselor at [YOUR SCHOOL NAME]. I write to you today, as I am extremely keen on establishing open communication and fostering a good relationship with you, as we collaboratively work towards nurturing your child's growth and development here at [YOUR SCHOOL NAME].

With over a decade of experience working as a guidance counselor, I confidently bring a wealth of knowledge and resources to support your child's emotional, social, and academic progress. Rest assured, I am committed to creating a nurturing and safe environment for your child and ensuring that their school experience is positive and enriching.

As the school year progresses, I will be conducting guidance lessons focused on character education, conflict resolution, decision-making skills, and also, career exploration. I believe that these lessons will equip your child with valuable skills they need for their future.

I highly encourage you to be part of our School Counseling Advisory Council, where your valuable input and collaboration will play a key part in shaping our programs. I look forward to a productive school year working with you and your child.

Best Regards,

[YOUR NAME]
