(Fifth edition, revised and enlarged.) Nikolaus Pevsner, 1957 An Outline of European Architecture ... New and enlarged edition. [With plates.] Nikolaus Pevsner, 1948 Designing the City of Reason Ali Madanipour, 2007-04-11 With a practical approach to theory Designing the City of Reason offers new perspectives on how differing belief systems and philosophical approaches impact on city design and development exploring how this has changed before during and after the impact of modernism in all its rationalism Looking at the connections between abstract ideas and material realities this book provides a social and historical account of ideas which have emerged out of the particular concerns and cultural contexts and which inform the ways we live By considering the changing foundations for belief and action and their impact on urban form it follows the history and development of city design in close conjunction with the growth of rationalist philosophy Building on these foundations it goes on to focus on the implications of this for urban development exploring how public infrastructures of meaning are constructed and articulated through the dimensions of time space meaning value and action With its wide ranging subject matter and distinctive blend of theory and practice this book furthers the scope and range of urban design by asking new questions about the cities we live in and the values and symbols which we assign to them

Folklore and Nationalism in Europe During the Long Nineteenth Century, 2012-07-25 The growth of nations national ideologies and the accompanying quest for the authentic among the people has been a subject of enquiry for many disciplines Building upon wide ranging scholarship this interdisciplinary study seeks to analyse the place of folklore in the long nineteenth century throughout Europe as an important symbol in the growth and development of nations and nationalism and in particular to see how combining perspectives from History Literary Studies Music and Architecture can help provide enhanced and refreshing perspectives on the complex process of nation building With a range of detailed case studies drawing upon archival literary visual and musical sources as well as material culture it raises questions about individual countries but also about links and similarities across Europe Drafty Houses in Forster, Eliot and Woolf Ria

Banerjee,2024-06-18 This book argues that E M Forster T S Eliot and Virginia Woolf engaged sustainedly with real and imagined places as sites of counter cultural politics These writers used architectural images in diaries essays novels poems and plays to express their dissatisfaction with imperial London from the glorification of war to the erosion of local religious and linguistic traditions and rigidly gendered practices in domestic and public life Drafty Houses shows that each author experienced post war modernity as intimate spatial dislocation in Egypt Forster in the church Eliot or in London s museums and streets Woolf and traces connections between their personal experiences and lesser read publications to theorize about the impact of places on their writerly perspectives By closely examining each author s negotiation of space symbolic of Englishness empire and global politics Drafty Houses considers the limits and the open ended possibilities of liberal humanism Christian conservatism and feminist pacifism Complexity and Contradiction in Architecture Robert

Venturi,1977-01-01 Complexity and Contradiction in Architecture is the first in a series of occasional papers concerned with the theoretical background of modern architecture Unlike other Museum publications in architecture and design the series will be independent of the Museum s exhibition program and will explore ideas too complex for presentation in exhibition form and authors will represent no single professional group According to the author this book is both an attempt at architectural criticism and an apologia an explanation indirectly of his work The examples chosen reflect his partiality for certain eras Mannerist Baroque and Rococo especially Separate chapters cover concepts such as nonstraightforward architecture complexity and contradiction vs simplification or picturesqueness contradictory levels of meaning and use in architecture and the double functioning element Also discussed are the complexity and contradiction that develops from the program of the building and reflects the inherent complexities and contradictions of living The final chapter presents photographs and descriptions of the author s work The Architecture of Europe: The ancient classical and Byzantine world, 3000 B.C.-A.D. 1453 Doreen Yarwood,1992 One of a series of four books this text surveys the architecture of Europe from 3000 BC to 1453 AD covering the ancient Minoan Greek Etruscan Roman and Byzantine civilizations as well as the early Christian period The aim of this series is to provide a basic source of reference on the general evolution of architectural style and taste in different areas of Europe Each volume uses a practical mixture of technological developments aesthetic debates and individual architects and buildings An Outline of European Architecture. Storia dell'architettura europea, etc. (Traduzione di E. Labò.) With plates. Nikolaus Pevsner,Enrica LABÒ,1959 Architecture INTL Nancy

Solomon,2008-05-27 On the occasion of its 150th anniversary the American Institute of Architects asked more than 70 contributors to examine the complex and evolving of the America s architects in shaping our cities and communities Through essays vignettes and profiles illustrated with more than 560 photographs Architecture provides a look at the breath and depth of the architecture profession and points to the significant contributions architects have made in all aspects of society Most important the book demonstrates the value of applying architectural thinking to the many serious issues from global
