Decisions, Human Choices Lloyd C. Williams,1996-07-17 Dr Williams contends that over the last 20 years a change has occurred in organizations that has created a syndrome of dysfunctions that are neither good for businesses nor for the people who work in them Williams sees businesses as living entities and argues that how they act and react will have an impact on their employees and often a devastating impact In much the same way as businesses make decisions people make choices and seldom are these decisions and choices congruent Unless disparate self interests and goals can be reconciled unless a partnership can be restored between people and their organizations not only will employees be damaged but the success of their organization upon which they depend for their livelihoods will be jeopardized How this dangerous situation came about what it means and how it can be remedied is the subject of Dr Williams book Research based and always in touch with the realities of commerce Dr Williams will make business people aware that organizations and their people must become reunited and then show them how it can be done Dr Williams makes clear he is not simply speculating or theorizing His goal is to make management aware of the dysfunctions that are damaging their organizations and how these are reflected in the behaviors of their employees When he calls for a focus on humanity spirit and context Dr Williams is actually offering a workable real world strategy to breathe new life into organizations of all kinds a strategy he calls The Trinity Process Its purpose to help management restore the essential partnership between organizational entities and the people who make them succeed or fail In Part One he shows what it means to be part of any organization and with anecdotes and cases from his own research helps readers grasp the dynamics of their own organizations In Part Two he proposes new or reframed paradigms that provide an underpinning for the reestablishment of equality between organizations and their employees Then in Part Three he presents The Trinity Process itself The result is a remarkably lucid readable engrossing exploration of organizational life today important reading for decision makers in all types of organizations public as well as private and for academics concerned with how organizations behave The Complete Book of Everyday Christianity R. Subversive Spirituality L Paul Jensen,2011-06-30 Subversive Spirituality links the practice and study of Christian spirituality with Christian mission It develops a twofold thesis grace spiritual disciplines and mission practices are inseparably linked in the mission of Jesus of the early church and of several historical renewal movements as well as in a contemporary field research sample and amidst the collapse of space and time evidenced by our culture s increasingly hurried pace of life more time and space are needed for regular solitary and communal spiritual practices in church mission and leadership structures if Christian mission is to transform people and culture in our time This requires a subversion of the collapsed spatial and temporal codes that have infected our Christian institutions Jensen employs methods and approaches from a variety of academic disciplines to explore both spirituality in terms of space and time and mission in terms of deed and word Specifically Jensen examines the spirituality and mission of Jesus the early church the apostolic fathers Origen the Devotio Moderna the early Jesuits David Brainerd and several women in 19th century Protestant missions He considers the spirituality and mission that have arisen within the postmodern generations born after 1960 Based on the theological historical cultural and field analyses of this study a model for spirituality and mission is proposed The model addresses the contemporary collapse of space and time and appears to havewidespread applicability to diverse cultures and eras Jensen s model is applied to the pluralistic and postmodern milieu of North America with recommendations for spirituality and mission in church mission and educational structures A derivativemodel for teaching and practicing spirituality and mission in the academy which also has application for non formal leadership development structures is also proposed
