

ii) The organizational and administrative factor:

- This factor constitutes the form of the government within a political society and the attitude of the people towards it.
- Many of majority of foreign issues can be decided by the sound governmental organization, efficient public administration of a country.
- A government which has strong support from its people lasts long and becomes efficient with lapse of time and becomes also able to deal with the foreign affairs peacefully.
- Thus, general support of the government and the efficient administration are very important factors for the formulation of sound foreign policy.
