undermined It is therefore not surprising that a 2008 Transparency International report found a direct link between corruption and the failure of the societal institutions designed to achieve the Millennium Development Goals in the majority of developing countries This book investigates the problems of democratic governance particularly as they relate to corruption and also whether democracy should be based on universal principles or local context and historical factors It also analyses the rule of law in promoting democratic governance and curbing corruption and if governmental non governmental organizations and civil societies are effective in promoting democratic governance and curbing corruption This book will go beyond identifying the challenges and offer plausible solutions that could be adapted to various developing countries It is premised on the importance of bridging theory and practice which has been lacking in most local and international development publications making of interest to scholars and policy makers alike concerned with public administration in developing countries
