Adobe Walls:

Adobe Walls T. Lindsay Baker, Billy R. Harrison, 1986-04-04 In the spring of 1874 a handful of men and one woman set out for the Texas Panhandle to seek their fortunes in the great buffalo hunt. Moving south to follow the herds they intended to establish a trading post to serve the hunter or hide men. At a place called Adobe Walls they dug blocks from the sod and built their center of operations. After operating for only a few months the post was attacked one sultry June morning by angry members of several Plains Indian tribes whose physical and cultural survival depended on the great bison herd that were rapidly shrinking before the white men's guns. Initially defeated that attacking Indians retreated. But the defenders also retreated leaving the deserted post to be burned by Indians intent on erasing all traces of the white man's presence. Nonetheless, traces did remain and in the ashes and dirt were buried minute details of the hide men's lives and the battle that so suddenly changed them. A little more than a century later white men again dug into the sod at Adobe Walls. The nineteenth century men dug for profits but the modern hunters were looking for the natural time capsule inadvertently left by those earlier adventurers. The authors of this book, a historian and an archeologist, have dug into the sod and into far flung archives to sift reality from the long romanticized story of Adobe Walls, its residents and the Indians who so fiercely resented their presence. The full story of Adobe Walls now tells us much about the life and work of the hide men, about the dying of the Plains Indian culture and about the march of white commerce across the frontier.

Structural Analysis of Historical Constructions - 2 Volume Set Claudio Modena, P.B. Lourenço, P. Roca, 2004-11-15 Structural Analysis of Historical Constructions contains about 160 papers that were presented at the IV International Seminar on Structural Analysis of Historical Constructions that was held from 10 to 13 November 2004 in Padova, Italy. Following publications of previous seminars that were organized in Barcelona, Spain 1995 and 1998 and Guimarães, Portugal 2001, state-of-the-art information is presented in these two volumes on the preservation, protection, and restoration of historical constructions, both comprising monumental structures and complete city centers. These two proceedings volumes are devoted to the possibilities of numerical and experimental techniques in the maintenance of historical structures. In this respect, the papers originating from over 30 countries are subdivided in the following areas: Historical aspects and general methodology; Materials and laboratory testing; Non-destructive testing and inspection techniques; Dynamic behavior and structural monitoring; Analytical and numerical approaches; Consolidation and strengthening techniques; Historical timber and metal structures; Seismic analysis and vulnerability assessment; Seismic strengthening and innovative systems; Case studies. Structural Analysis of Historical Constructions is a valuable source of information for scientists and practitioners working on structure-related issues of historical constructions.

Life and Adventures of "Billy" Dixon, of Adobe Walls, Texas Panhandle Billy Dixon, 1914 William Billy Dixon scouted the Texas Panhandle for the Army, hunted buffalo for the train companies, defended the Adobe Walls settlement against Indian attack with his legendary buffalo rifle, and was one of eight civilians in the history

Battles and Massacres on the Southwestern Frontier Ronald K. Wetherington,Frances Levine,2014-03-17 Battles and massacres are intimate affairs for combatants and others involved their physical and emotional violence often stemming from fervor and fear Although mass killing characterizes both battles and massacres the two are profoundly different Battles take place between armed forces massacres are one sided events in which the dead are mostly innocent victims Yet the fog of war shrouds both massacres and battles in a functional amnesia Participants remember what exactly happened during such a violent encounter only imperfectly and later clarity cannot always rectify accounts thus rendered Even naming the events as battles or massacres already imposes an interpretive framework upon them This unique study centers on four critical engagements between Anglo Americans and American Indians on the southwestern frontier the Battle of Cieneguilla 1854 the Battle of Adobe Walls 1864 the Sand Creek Massacre 1864 and the Mountain Meadows Massacre 1857 Editors Ronald K Wetherington and Frances Levine juxtapose historical and archaeological perspectives on each event to untangle the ambiguity and controversy that surround both historical and more contemporary accounts of each of these violent outbreaks Both disciplines the contributors make clear yield surprisingly similar narratives and interpretive agreement and the lessons learned from these nineteenth century killing fields about wartime reporting and command failures remain relevant today Contributions by T Lindsay Baker J Brett Cruse Will Gorenfeld Shannon A Novak Lars Rodseth Douglas D Scott and Joe Watkins Architect and Engineer of California ,1929 Cement World ,1908 American Builder ,1921 Frontier Times ,1924 Science and Invention Hugo Gernsback,Arthur M.
