Decoding Samara:

Decoding Samara Patrick Deeley, 2000 Patrick Deeley's fourth poetry collection uses the imagery of trees to explore human emotions. The poems move from mythology the Dryads of the woods the local legends to a suburban landscape where the memories of trees and the presence of timber create an unsettling effect imaging that of the human struggle to make sense of our environment. The title signifies coming to understand the relationship with our environment samara being the one seeded fruit with a wing of some trees

Wingspan Pat Boran, 2006 Now in its 21st year the Dedalus Press is one of the major poetry imprints in Ireland. In Wingspan A Dedalus Sampler poet and publisher Pat Boran presents a selection of recent and new work by 28 Irish and international poets on the Dedalus list among them Fergus Allen Thomas Kinsella Dolores Stewart and Macdara Woods showing something of the range and diversity that is the hallmark of the Dedalus list

The Hurley Maker's Son Patrick Deeley, 2016-04-07 Patrick Deeley's train journey home to rural East Galway in autumn 1978 was a pilgrimage of grief his giant of a father had been felled the hurley making workshop silenced. From this moment Patrick unfolds his childhood as a series of evocative moments from the intricate workings of the timber workshop run by his father to the slow taking apart of an old tractor and the physical burial of a steam engine from his mother's steady work on an old Singer sewing machine to his father's vertiginous quickstep on the roof of their house. There are many wonderful descriptions of the natural world and delightful cameos of characters and incidents from a not so long ago country childhood. In a style reminiscent of John McGahern's Memoir Deeley's beautifully paced prose captures the rhythms struggles and rough edges of a rural life that was already dying even as he grew. This is an enchanting beautifully written account of family love loss and the unstoppable march of time

Our Shared Japan Irene De Angelis, Joseph Woods, 2007 Given the distance which separates the two countries it is remarkable the interest contemporary Irish poets take in Japan both as subject and responding to its rich literature and culture as exemplar To mark the 50th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between the two countries in 1957 Our Shared Japan brings together a large selection of poems by Irish writers both in English and in Irish written or published during those 50 years Featuring some of the best known names in contemporary Irish poetry it also includes many younger poets who have grown up with and in various ways responded to those growing connections Some of the poets have visited or spent time in Japan and write from that experience others respond to a Japan of the imagination adopting or adapting Japanese poetic technique as a means to expand and enrich their own ways of looking at the world In this respect Our Shared Japan is a celebration of outside influence but it is also a celebration of the power of poetry wherever we may travel to find it to bring us to ourselves
