One of America s most distinguished poets now shares his fascination with a distinctive corner of our country Richard Shelton first came to southeastern Arizona in the 1950s as a soldier stationed at Fort Huachuca He soon fell in love with the region and upon his discharge found a job as a schoolteacher in nearby Bisbee Now a university professor and respected poet living in Tucson still in love with the Southwestern deserts Shelton sets off for Bisbee on a not uncommon day trip Along the way he reflects on the history of the area on the beauty of the landscape and on his own life Couched within the narrative of his journey are passages revealing Shelton s deep familiarity with the region s natural and human history Whether conveying the mystique of tarantulas or describing the mountain studded topography he brings a poet s eye to this seemingly desolate country His observations on human habitation touch on Tombstone the town too tough to die on ghost towns that perhaps weren t as tough and on Bisbee itself a once prosperous mining town now an outpost for the arts and a destination for tourists What he finds there is both a broad view of his past and a glimpse of that city s possible future Going Back to Bisbee explores a part of America with which many readers may not be familiar A rich store of information embedded in splendid prose it shows that there are more than miles on the road to Bisbee Fantasy ,1969 The American Annual Cyclopædia and Register of Important Events ... ,1871 Coins of Southern India Walter Elliot,1886 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science ,1879
