Corona Americas First Satellite Program:

Corona United States. Central Intelligence Agency,1995 The Corona Project Curtis Peebles,1997 In the early 1960s when the United States and the Soviet Union faced each other in a nuclear standoff a small band of engineers designers and intelligence officers secretly set out to do the impossible Armed with little more than a few ideas and drawings of the payload they created America s first reconnaissance satellite program the Corona project which for decades remained one of the nation s most closely guarded secrets This is the story of their extraordinary efforts from the first desperate requests for intelligence on the USSR through a series of heartbreaking failures to Corona s ultimate success This book focuses not only on the Corona project s great technical achievements but also on the remarkable human side of the story on the engineers who built the satellites but could not divulge what they did even to their own families and on the recovery pilots who competed to see who would be the first ace Their stories appear for the first time in this book along with previously classified details of their recovery unit and a list of the ace pilots Corona Kevin C Ruffner,2005 The documents and imagery in this volume on the nation s first photo reconnaissance satellite system were reviewed and declassified with unusual dispatch by a special working group of declassification officers from the National Reconnaissance Office the Central Imagery Office CIA s Directorate of Science and Technology and its National Photographic Interpretation Center Corona United States. Central Intelligence Agency,1995 Corona ,1995 CORONA: AMERICA'S FIRST SATELLITE PROGRAM... CIA HISTORY STAFF CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF INTELLIGENCE. ,1999* Spies, Wiretaps, and Secret Operations Glenn Peter Hastedt,2010-12-09 A comprehensive two volume overview and analysis of all facets of espionage in the American historical experience focusing on key individuals and technologies In two volumes Spies Wiretaps and Secret Operation An Encyclopedia of American Espionage ranges across history to provide a comprehensive thoroughly up to date introduction to spying in the United States why it is done who does it both for and against the United States how it is done and what its ultimate impact has been The encyclopedia includes hundreds of entries in chronologically organized sections that cover espionage by and within the United States from colonial times to the 21st century Entries cover key individuals technologies and events in the history of American espionage Volume two offers overviews of important agencies in the American intelligence community and intelligence organizations in other nations both allies and adversaries plus details of spy trade techniques and a concluding section on the portrayal of espionage in literature and film The result is a cornerstone resource that moves beyond the Cold War centric focus of other works on the subject to offer an authoritative contemporary look at American espionage efforts past and present Critical Issues in the History of Spaceflight Stephen J. Dick,Steven J. Dick,Roger D. Launius,2006 In March 2005 the NASA History Division and the Division of Space History at the National Air and Space Museum brought together a distinguished group of scholars to consider the state of the discipline of space history This volume is a collection of essays based on those deliberations The meeting took place at a time of extraordinary transformation for NASA stemming from the new Vision of Space Exploration announced by President George W Bush in January 2004 to go to the Moon Mars and beyond This Vision in turn stemmed from a deep reevaluation of NASA's goals in the wake of the Space Shuttle Columbia accident and the recommendations of the Columbia Accident Investigation Board The new goals were seen as initiating a New Age of Exploration and were placed in the context of the importance of exploration and discovery to the American experience Amazon Critical issues in the history of spaceflight Steven J. The Wizards Of Langley Jeffrey T. Richelson, 2008-11-10 In this the first full length study of the Directorate of Science and Technology Jeffrey T Richelson walks us down the corridors of CIA headquarters in Langley Virginia and through the four decades of science scientists and managers that produced the CIA we have today He tells a story of amazing technological innovation in service of intelligence gathering of bitter bureaucratic infighting and sometimes as in the case of its mind control adventure of stunning moral failure Based on original interviews and extensive archival research The Wizards of Langley turns a piercing lamp on many of the agency's activities many never before made public Shades of Gray L. Parker Temple, 2005 In this work Temple tracks the evolution of space reconnaissance systems from their seeds in the painful lessons of Pearl Harbor through the challenges of today book cover Total Cold War Kenneth Alan Osgood, 2006 Osgood focuses on major campaigns such as Atoms for Peace People to People and cultural exchange programs Drawing on recently declassified documents that record U S psychological operations in some three dozen countries he tells how U S propaganda agencies presented everyday life in America to the world its citizens living full happy lives in a classless society where economic bounty was shared by all Osgood further investigates the ways in which superpower disarmament negotiations were used as propaganda maneuvers in the battle for international public opinion He also reexamines the early years of the space race focusing especially on the challenge to American propagandists posed by the Soviet launch of Sputnik

The Cold War Spencer C. 20th Century Spy in the Sky Satellites U. S. Military, Department of Defense, Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), World Spaceflight News, National Reconnaissance Office (NRO), 2017-04-17 Part of our comprehensive series on the National Reconnaissance Office NRO and its spy satellite network this volume covers the historic CORONA spy satellite program called America's first satellite program Histories from the NRO and the Central Intelligence Agency CIA cover all aspects of CORONA Since the CORONA satellite made its first successful flight in August 1960 the Intelligence Community's overhead reconnaissance programs have been among the nation's most closely guarded secrets The end of the Cold War however has at last made it possible to declassify both information and imagery from the first American satellite systems of the 1960s The CORONA reconnaissance satellites revolutionized the collection of intelligence in the 1960s This was a time when it was still extraordinarily difficult to gather information by any other means from denied areas including the Soviet Union Communist China and their allies The need for intelligence about Soviet strategic weapon systems and bases dramatically increased after 1 May 1960 when the Soviets shot down an American U 2 aircraft and captured its CIA pilot Francis Gary Powers Within a few months however on 18 August the United States launched its first successful reconnaissance satellite which in one mission provided more photographic coverage of the Soviet Union than all previous U 2 missions On 19 August 1960 the recovery of Mission 9009 with a KH 1 camera marked the beginning of the CORONA reconnaissance satellite program's long and valuable service The story of this program's success is one of the most remarkable in the annals of American science and intelligence While orbiting the earth CORONA concentrated principally on photographing the USSR and China One intelligence community study summarized CORONA's efforts over the Soviet Union CORONA's initial major accomplishment was imaging all Soviet medium range intermediate range and intercontinental ballistic missile launching complexes CORONA also identified the Plesetsk Missile Test Range north of Moscow Repetitive coverage of centers like Plesetsk provided information as to what missiles were being developed tested and or deployed Also the unequivocal fact of observation gave the United States freedom from concern over many areas and locations which had been suspect in the past NRO designs builds and operates the nation's reconnaissance satellites NRO products provided to an expanding list of customers like the Central Intelligence Agency CIA and the Department of Defense DoD can warn of potential trouble spots around the world help plan military operations and monitor the environment As part of the 16 member Intelligence Community the NRO plays a primary role in achieving information superiority for the U S Government and Armed Forces A DoD agency the NRO is staffed by DoD and CIA personnel It is funded through the National Reconnaissance Program part of the National Foreign Intelligence Program The NRO Vision Vigilance From Above NRO Mission Innovative Overhead Intelligence Systems for National Security In recent years the NRO has implemented a series of actions declassifying some of its operations The organization was declassified in September 1992 followed by the location of its
