Beyond Distance Teaching Towards Open Learning Vivien E. Hodgson, Sarah J. Mann, Robin S. Snell, 1987 Managing Teaching and Learning in Further and Higher Education Kate Ashcroft, Lorraine Foreman-Peck, 2013-10-14 The role of the teacher lecturer is to manage and facilitate the process of teaching and learning in a two way interaction between teacher self and taught other This handbook covers ways of managing the teaching learning and assessment process to improve students learning It guides readers through paths of enquiry and reflection to create a learning programme designed to meet students specific needs The focus includes student learning and tutors teaching and how these are effected by institutional arrangements the interpersonal skills of tutors and course design and teaching methods The text includes enquiry tasks which invite the reader to explore issues introduced in each chapter in the context of their own institution An annotated reading list at the end of each chapter enables the reader to take their particular interests further New Approaches to Vocational Education in Europe Regina H. Mulder, Peter F.E. Sloane, 2004-05-10 This book investigates issues surrounding the concept of complex learning teaching environments The first part provides an overview of general themes connected to complex learning teaching environments and sheds some light on the theoretical background of the concept The second part demonstrates how the idea of complex learning teaching environments influences the particular training contexts in different countries Educational Technology Greg Kearsley, 1994 Policy for Open and Distance Learning H. D. Perraton, Helen Lentell, 2004 Policy for Open and Distance Learning considers the questions that planners and policy makers in open and distance learning need to address at any level of education Starting by analysing the range of purposes for which open and distance learning is used the book places the issues in context and examines experience in both the public and private sector As well as discussing in detail new agenda set by new information and communication technologies the book covers Inputs Processes Outcomes The editors Hilary Perraton and Helen Lentell have drawn together an international team of contributors who have examined the varied roles of the new technologies as well as low technology approaches to open and distance learning throughout the world This book will be invaluable to policy makers in education and those planning or managing open and distance learning programmes It will also be of interest to students and teachers of education and anyone concerned with comparative education Open Learning in Transition Nigel Paine, 1989 Computer Support for Collaborative Learning Gerry Stahl, 2023-01-13 Computer Support for Collaborative Learning CSCL is a field of study centrally concerned with meaning and the practices of meaning making in the context of joint activity and the ways in which these practices are mediated through designed artifacts This volume includes abstracts of papers that were presented during interactive poster sessions at CSCL 2002 Documenting an extremely heterogeneous productive phase of inquiry with broad social consequences these proceedings reflect the current state of CSCL research particularly in North America and Western Europe The Management of Educational Change Paul Oliver, 1996 This book examines how educational change can be managed in a wide variety of contexts from secondary to higher education demonstrated through extensive case studies by international educational practitioners working in different sectors of education Open Learning in the Mainstream Mary Thorpe, David Grugeon, 1994 International Yearbook of Educational and Training Technology, 1994 Open Learning and Open Management Ross H.
