Still Life with Rhetoric Laurie E. Gries,2015-03-05 In Still Life with Rhetoric Laurie Gries forges connections among new materialism actor network theory and rhetoric to explore how images become rhetorically active in a digitally networked global environment Rather than study how an already materialized visual text functions within a specific context Gries investigates how images often circulate and transform across media genre and location at viral rates A four part case study of Shepard Fairey's now iconic Obama Hope image elucidates how images reassemble collective life as they actualize in different versions enter into various relations and spark a firework of activity across the globe While intent on tracking the rhetorical life of a single multiple image Still Life with Rhetoric is most concerned with studying rhetoric in motion To account for an image s widespread circulation and emergent activities Gries introduces iconographic tracking a digital research method for tracing an image s divergent rhetorical becomings Yet Gries also articulates a dynamic set of theoretical principles for studying rhetoric as a distributed generative and unforeseeable event that is applicable beyond the study of visual rhetoric With an eye toward futurity the strands of time beyond a thing s initial moment of production and delivery Still Life with Rhetoric intends to be taken up by those interested in visual rhetoric research methods and theory
