Screen Jesus Peter Malone,2012-10-12 Since the dawn of film in the 1890s religious themes and biblical subjects have been a staple of cinema One of the earliest focuses of screen presentations was the Bible especially the New Testament and the Gospels In Screen Jesus Portrayals of Christ in Television and Film Peter Malone takes a close look at films in which Jesus is depicted From silent renditions of The Passion Play to 21st century blockbusters like The Passion of the Christ Malone examines how the history of Jesus films reflects the changes in artistic styles and experiments in cinematic forms for more than a century In addition to providing a historical overview of the Jesus films this book also reveals the changes in piety and in theological understandings of the humanity and divinity of Jesus over the decades While most of the Jesus films come from the United States and the west an increasing number of Jesus films come from other cultures which are also included in this study Fans and scholars interested in the history of religious cinema will find this an interesting read as will students and teachers in cinema and religious studies church pastors parish groups and youth ministry

Following Jesus in a Culture of Fear (The Christian Practice of Everyday Life) Scott Bader-Saye,2007-06-01 Through politics marketing news programming and popular culture we are taught to fear often in ways that profit others But what does all this fear do to our moral lives as it forms or deforms our character and our judgment Drawing on Christian scripture and tradition Following Jesus in a Culture of Fear articulates a response to fear that resists an ethic of security in favor of fostering an ethic of risk The Christian virtues of hospitality peacefulness and generosity are presented as the way to defeat the counter virtues of suspicion preemption and control Pastors students and lay people will find this unique book both accessible and intriguing EXCERPT Do not be afraid We live in a time when this biblical refrain cannot be repeated too often Both John Paul II in 1978 and his successor Benedict XVI in 2005 used these words to begin their papacies Among all the things the church has to say to the world today this may be the most important No one has to be convinced that we live in fearful times though we are not always sure what we should be afraid of and why We suspect that our fears make us vulnerable to manipulation but we find it hard to quell the fear long enough to analyze how it is being produced and directed for the benefit of others One reason we are a more fearful culture today despite the fact that the dangers are not objectively greater than in the past is because some people have incentives and means to heighten manipulate and exploit our fears Fear is a strong motivator and so those who want and need to motivate others politicians advertisers media executives advocacy groups even the church turn to fear to bolster their message I call this the fear for profit syndrome and it is rampant We have become preoccupied with unlikely dangers that take on the status of imminent threats producing a culture where fear determines a disproportionate number of our personal and communal decisions The sense of ever increasing threats can overwhelm our ability to evaluate and respond proportionately to each new risk thus we allow fear to overdetermine our actions
