Animal Thought:

Animal Thinking Randolph Menzel, Julia Fischer, 2024-03-19 Experts from psychology neuroscience philosophy ecology and evolutionary biology assess the field of animal cognition Do animals have cognitive maps Do they possess knowledge Do they plan for the future Do they understand that others have mental lives of their own This volume provides a state of the art assessment of animal cognition with experts from psychology neuroscience philosophy ecology and evolutionary biology addressing these questions in an integrative fashion It summarizes the latest research identifies areas where consensus has been reached and takes on current controversies Over the last thirty years the field has shifted from the collection of anecdotes and the pursuit of the subjective experience of animals to a rigorous hypothesis driven experimental approach Taking a skeptical stance this volume stresses the notion that in many cases relatively simple rules may account for rather complex and flexible behaviors The book critically evaluates current concepts and puts a strong focus on the psychological mechanisms that underpin animal behavior It offers comparative analyses that reveal common principles as well as adaptations that evolved in particular species in response to specific selective pressures It assesses experimental approaches to the study of animal navigation decision making social cognition and communication and suggests directions for future research The book promotes a research program that seeks to understand animals cognitive abilities and behavioral routines as individuals and as members of social groups

Animal Thinking Donald Redfield Griffin, 1984 Discusses renewed interest in conscious mental experiences of animals and the possibility that thoughts and feelings of animals can be studied objectively

Philosophers of Our Times Ted Honderich, 2015 Eighteen of the world's most eminent philosophers of recent years tackle central questions of philosophy in this collection of the prestigious annual lectures given at the Royal Institute of Philosophy in London The line up of authors is stellar Simon Blackburn Ned Block Tyler Burge David Chalmers Noam Chomsky Jerry Fodor Jurgen Habermas Anthony Kenny Christine Korsgaard John McDowell Alasdair MacIntyre Thomas Nagel Derek Parfit T M Scanlon John Searle Sir Peter Strawson Bernard Williams and Mary Warnock There are six pieces on questions to do with mind perception and action four on reason and morality six range over freedom identity religion and politics and the last two take a step back to look at philosophy itself and how it works The best way to learn about philosophy is to read philosophy at its best that is what this fascinating anthology offers

The Oxford Handbook of Animal Studies Linda Kalof, 2017 The Oxford Handbook of Animal Studies tackles the infamous animal question how can humans rethink and reconfigure their relationships with other animals Over the course of five sections and thirty chapters the contributors investigate issues and concepts central to understanding our current relationship with other animals and the potential for coexistence in an ecological community of living beings

Animal Rights Education Kai Horsthemke, 2018-09-27 This book explores how the ethical treatment and status of other than human animals influence pedagogy teaching and learning in general aiming to fill what has been a gap in the philosophy of education It examines key trends in this regard including environmental education humane education posthumanist education ecopedagogy critical animal pedagogy critical animal studies animal standpoint theory and vegan education The book discusses animal minds and interests and how animals have been accommodated in moral theory Further it investigates whether anti racist and anti sexist education logically entail anti speciesist education and closes by proposing animal rights education as a viable and sound alternative a pedagogy that does justice not only to animals in general and as species but also to individual animals If animal rights education is philosophically and educationally meaningful then it can arguably offer a powerful pedagogical tool and facilitate lasting pro animal changes
