Animals and Ourselves Kathy Merlock Jackson,Kathy Shepherd Stolley,Lisa Lyon Payne,2020-10-13 The relationship between humans and animals has always been strong symbiotic and complicated Animals real and fictional have been a mainstay in the arts and entertainment figuring prominently in literature film television social media and live performances Increasingly though people are anthropomorphizing animals assigning them humanoid roles tasks and identities At the same time humans such as members of the furry culture or college mascots find pleasure in adopting animal identities and characteristics This book is the first of its kind to explore these growing phenomena across media The contributors to this collection represent various disciplines to include the arts humanities social sciences and healthcare Their essays demonstrate the various ways that human and animal lives are intertwined and constantly evolving Milieu Elisha Jane Cohn,2025-04-15 In this creaturely theory of the novel Elisha Cohn rethinks the status of animals in recent global fiction arguing that literary representation of animals should matter to any reader invested in the novel as a form and showing how literary style makes knowable our imperiled multispecies worlds Cohn argues that the animal lives of contemporary fiction move beyond allegories of globalization s fracture of subjectivity by emphasizing the creaturely dimensions of narrative This shift in focus registers through recent fiction s fascination with milieus environments made perceptible through sentience that humans share with other creatures Showing how theories of milieu from Jacob von Uexk ll George Canguilhem and Sylvia Wynter to recent studies in comparative cognition converge with and are conceptually indebted to Indigenous and Black ontologies Cohn argues that the milieu not only explains the centrality of animals to contemporary fiction but also promotes dialogue across disciplines invested in anti hierarchic accounts of embodied life Each chapter foregrounds formal resonances in texts from the mid 1990s through the present including work by T a Obrecht Yoko Tawada NoViolet Bulawayo Sigrid Nunez Jesmyn Ward Linda Hogan Lucy Ellmann Amitav Ghosh and Aminatta Forna Throughout Cohn compellingly argues for the centrality of narrative voice in avoiding deferring or complicating modes of figuration and critical interpretation that confirm human privilege , City Hall ,1910 Chester White Journal ,1922 The Animals'
