Die Villa:

Die Villa: German Translation of The Mansion Jacob Job,2020-04-25 About the Author This title is translated to German from its original version written in English A sleepy little village tucked away in the sylvan settings of paddy fields and Areca palms with its regular dose of gossip and waywardness comes alive to the adventures of entrepreneurship opening up strange vistas The caravan threading through the story fabric is a world in itself The dumb creatures the master the cart driver all live in a world of their own But then suddenly the cocoon bursts and dirty worms creep out Every thing turns topsy turvy We come across a myriad characters painted in different shades of grey The author spins a web of magic through a prism cut in acute angles Make a slight tilt There are no saints nor sinners As the cart wheels roll up the dirt road you come across different types of characters waiting anxiously We are sucked into a vestibule of passions Mellowed and seasoned beyond age by the tough experiences during the adolescence Issack makes a headlong plunge into business An empire where his ancestors crumbled and perished An astute observer of situations he soon makes a niche for himself But then is sucked deep into a magical whirlpool of a by gone generation Seeds of the past comes for a re visit and blooms with a vengeance
