J. M. Synge and Travel Writing of the Irish Revival Giulia Bruna, 2017-10-31 Between the late 1890s and the early 1900s the young Irish writer John Millington Synge journeyed across his home country documenting his travels intermittently for ten years His body of travel writing includes the travel book The Aran Islands his literary journalism about West Kerry and Wicklow published in various periodicals and his articles for the Manchester Guardian about rural poverty in Connemara and Mayo Although Synge s nonfiction is often considered of minor weight compared with his drama Bruna argues persuasively that his travel narratives are instances of a pioneering ethnographic and journalistic imagination J M Synge and Travel Writing of the Irish Revival is the first comprehensive study of Synge s travel writing about Ireland compiled during the zeitgeist of the preindependence Revival movement Bruna argues that Synge s nonfiction subverts inherited modes of travel writing that put an emphasis on Empire and Nation Synge s writing challenges these grand narratives by expressing a more complex idea of Irishness grounded in his empathetic observation of the local rural communities he traveled amongst Drawing from critically neglected revivalist travel literature newspapers and periodicals and visual and archival documents Bruna sketches a new portrait of a seminal Irish Literary Renaissance figure and sheds new light on the itineraries of activism and literary engagement of the broader Revival movement

Modern Irish Poetry: A New Alhambra Frank Sewell, 2001-01-25 Recently chapters on individual Irish language authors have formed part of publications regarding modern Irish art and culture in general Such chapters are welcome but they have excited the curiosity of readers to the degree that longer more detailed works are now required to put writing in Irish into perspective In this study of four modern poets two each from two generations Sewell attempts to illustrate not only the accumulative but the transformative nature of tradition Chapters 1 and 2 turn from the mid 20th century master Seán Ríordáin to the contemporary poet Cathal Searcaigh because the comparison and contrast highlights significant aspects of the amazing development of Irish poetry and indeed society in the period Here importantly the word development is meant in a neutral way the image used is that of a zig zag movement in the pattern of the continuing Irish tradition Chapter 3 returns to the slightly earlier major Irish language poet Mairéad Ní Dire In doing so it returns home from the internationalism of the previous chapter on Searcaigh to Ireland a major focus and concern for the more solely traditionalist Dire In This switch back in time geography social mores or outlook fits and illustrates Sewell's concept of the zig zag movement of a country's culture as it proceeds from generation to generation The positioning therefore has a thematic purpose The fourth and final chapter focuses on the contemporary poet Nuala Ní Dhomhnaill who has managed to synthesise tradition and modernity central concerns of this book and who in doing so has become the current trail blazer of Irish poetry in either language

Synge and Edwardian Ireland Brian Cliff, Nicholas Grene, 2012 This book uses J M Synge's plays prose and photography to explore the cultural life of Edwardian Ireland By emphasizing less familiar contexts including the rise of a local celebrity culture the arts and crafts movement and Irish classical music it shows how Irish folk culture intersected with the new networks of mass communication Farming in Modern Irish Literature Nicholas Grene, 2021-08-05 This innovative study analyzes the range of representation of farming in Irish literature in the period since independence partition in 1922 as Ireland moved from a largely agricultural to a developed urban society In many different forms including poetry drama fiction and autobiography writers have made literary capital by looking back at their rural backgrounds even where those may be a generation back The first five chapters examine some of the key themes the impact of inheritance on family in the patriarchal system where there could only be one male heir the struggles for survival in the poorest regions of the West of Ireland the uses of childhood farming memories whether idyllic or traumatic and the representation of communities challenging the homogeneous idealizing images of the Literary Revival the impact of modernization on successive generations into the twenty first century The final three chapters are devoted to three major writers in whose work farming is central Patrick Kavanagh the small farmer who had to find an individual voice to express his own unique experience John McGahern in whose fiction the life of the farm is always posited as alternative to a rootless urban milieu and Seamus Heaney who re imagined his farming childhood in so many different modes throughout his career Farming in Modern Irish Literature yields original insights into the literary iconography of rural Ireland and its interplay with social and cultural history opening up fresh vistas on the achievements of Irish writers in different genres styles and historical eras
