| Salutation | Dear Mr. Grizel, |
| Introduction | I am writing to express my interest in the Technical Translator job at your company, SpeakUp, as I believe the position is a perfect fit for my experience and qualifications, as you will see in my attached resume. With native fluency in English, Spanish, and French, and six years of translation experience, I believe that my skills and qualifications will bring immediate value to your company and contribute to its developmental objectives and long-term goals. |
| Background | My undergraduate degree in Foreign Languages with a minor in Translation has provided me with the technical skills necessary to exercise the Translator position. While my language and translation proficiency is evidenced by my ATA certification in English, Spanish, and French, my six-year career in translation can be highlighted through my top achievements: |
| Key achievements | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Translation of 500+ technical and legal documents.• Publishing the Spanish translation of over 250 company articles and upkeeping the Spanish version of the company's website.• Direct involvement with the closing of over 250 negotiations with our international partners, resulting in profits exceeding $50 million. |
| Soft skills | While linguistic competency is my core strength, I believe that my strong interpersonal communication skills and a consistent ability to produce high-quality results in tight time constraints have allowed me to excel throughout my career. My ability to produce well-developed and nuanced translated content will certainly help your company succeed in its vision of expanding its customer base internationally. |
| CTA | I appreciate the time you have taken to evaluate my application, if there is a need for any further clarification of my attached portfolio or resume, I would be more than happy to provide the necessary information. I look forward to your forthcoming response and welcome the opportunity to further discuss the specific translation obligations that this position requires in the near future. |
| Sign-off | Sincerely, Miranda Edith |
