Changeling Bride:

The Changeling Bride Lisa Cach,2012-11-09 Modern day Elle is tired of the dating scene and of being single and poor When a strange old woman gives her a coupon for a free husband she half jokingly redeems it and finds herself swept back in time and into the life of Eleanor Moore a wealthy heiress engaged to the impoverished Earl of Allsbrook She quickly learns the truth of the old adage that you should be careful what you wish for you just might get it Screening Early Modern Drama Pascale Aebischer,2013-05-23 While film adaptations of Shakespeare's plays captured the popular imagination at the turn of the last century independent filmmakers began to adapt the plays of Shakespeare's contemporaries The roots of their films in European avant garde cinema and the plays politically subversive sexually transgressive and violent subject matter challenge Shakespeare's cultural dominance and the conventions of mainstream cinema In Screening Early Modern Drama Pascale Aebischer shows how director Derek Jarman constructed an alternative dissident approach to filming literary heritage in his queer Caravaggio and Edward II providing models for subsequent filmmakers such as Mike Figgis Peter Greenaway Alex Cox and Sarah Harding Aebischer explains how the advent of digital video has led to an explosion in low budget screen versions of early modern drama The only comprehensive analysis of early modern drama on screen to date this groundbreaking study also includes an extensive annotated filmography listing forty eight surviving adaptations Type and Motif-Index of the Folktales of England and North America Ernest W. Baughman,2012-01-19 No detailed description available for Type and Motif Index of the Folktales of England and North America The Love of Impermanent Things Mary Rose O'Reilley,2006 At midlife Mary Rose O'Reilley reflects on her past and her hard won sense of self She is determined now not to sacrifice or waste her self She has struggled for years along the paths set by her suburban childhood her Catholic upbringing her failed marriage and the mute duties of daughterhood Now she is trying to see the world through the eyes of the deer that stop outside her window and look in at her As a wildlife rehabilitator she feels a closer connection to the natural world as experienced by animals As an apprentice potter she sees in a Japanese tea bowl the ultimate balance of action and contemplation As a Quaker she can both sit still and sing And as a writer O'Reilley can speak clearly to readers at midlife who are expected to know it all but don't Poetry Off the Page Laura Severin,2017-03-02 This study examines the performed poetry of Charlotte Mew Anna Wickham Edith Sitwell Stevie Smith Liz Lochhead and Jackie Kay as an alternative radical tradition of British poetry developed to convey women's experience Through a historical treatment in which the poets are discussed in pairs the chapters trace how these six women used a performative poetry to deal with difficulties regarding women's representation from simply presenting difference in the case of Mew and Wickham to deconstructing difference in the case of Sitwell and Smith to avoiding the recapture of cultural imagery in the case of Lochhead and Kay Laura Severin claims that twentieth century British women poets have been neglected by both feminist and more traditional literary critics because they cannot be read within available literary frameworks Feminist criticism in particular has overlooked the value of other poetic ancestries by locating the only radical tradition of modern poetry in fractured form At least one alternative radical tradition can be found in a narrative and performed poetry that maximizes its transgressive potential with multiple framing devices Though a female poet always experiences difficulty in controlling both cultural imagery and her own public presentation these framing devices work together both to deconstruct the essentialized category of woman and to recover the multiplicity of women s experience

New Review, 1894 Atalanta, 1893 Yeats's Poetic Codes Nicholas Grene, 2008-06-12 Nicholas Grene explores Yeats s poetic codes of practice the key words and habits of speech that shape the reading experience of his poetry Where previous studies have sought to decode his work expounding its symbolic meanings by references to Yeats s occult beliefs philosophical ideas or political ideology the focus here is on his poetic technique its typical forms and their implications for the understanding of the poems Grene is concerned with the distinctive stylistic signatures of the Collected Poems the use of dates and place names within individual poems the handling of demonstratives and of grammatical tense and mood certain nodal Yeatsian words dream bitter sweet and images birds and beasts dialogue and monologue as the voices of his dramatic lyrics The aim throughout is to illustrate the shifting and unstable movement between lived reality and transcendental thought in Yeats the embodied quality of his poetry between a phenomenal world of sight and an imagined world of vision
