Changing Heaven Jane Urquhart, 2011-05-03 Two worlds are intertwined in this hauntingly beautiful story as it moves from Toronto to the English moors and to Venice Italy The time frame shifts between present and past linking the lives of a young Bront scholar a woman in the throes of a troubled love affair a turn of the century female balloonist and an elusive explorer with the ghost or the memory of Emily Bront Urquhart reveals something about the act of artistic creation the ways in which stories enter our lives and about the cyclical nature of love throughout time This is a novel of darkness and light of intense weather and inner calm

Crosstalk Diana Brydon, Marta Dvořák, 2012-08-07 What are the fictions that shape Canadian engagements with the global What frictions emerge from these encounters In negotiating aesthetic and political approaches to Canadian cultural production within contexts of global circulation this collection argues for the value of attending to narratorial lyric and theatrical conventions in dialogue with questions of epistemological and social justice Using the twinned framing devices of crosstalk and cross sighting the contributing authors attend to how the interplay of the verbal and the visual maps public spheres of creative engagement today Individual chapters present a range of methodological approaches to understanding national culture and creative labour in global contexts Through their collective enactment of methodological crosstalk they demonstrate the productivity of scholarly debate across differences of outlook culture and training In highlighting convergences and disagreements the book sharpens our understanding of how literary and critical conventions and theories operate within and across cultures
