Preaching that Matters Lori J. Carrell, 2013-04-11 Listeners do love their pastors and they agree with the sermon content they hear Lori Carrell once explained to a group of pastors but most sermons don't ask for change and most listeners don't experience spiritual growth as a result of the sermon A participant responded Let's get practical I want my preaching to make a difference What changes are worth making and how do I make them In Preaching that Matters Lori Carrell shares answers to that question drawing on the experiences of thousands of people preachers and their listeners whose effort she has studied over many years In each chapter of this book she offers research revelations about high impact preaching that will encourage and challenge readers to continue to grow as preachers She then links these principles with Reflective Practice Challenges RPCs exercises that honor the rich experiences of pastors while opening opportunities for self analysis spiritual introspection conversation with a trusted other or implementation of research based preaching recommendations The activities have been used by hundreds of other pastors and each RPC has been carefully selected for its demonstrated contribution to the process of transforming sermon communication A selection of the RPCs are available as a downloadable file E mail resource material rowman.com for more information As a communication expert Carrell approaches preaching from a sermon communication paradigm She begins with the task of identifying the spiritually transformative purpose of the sermon and then explores exegeting organizing deepening and delivering the sermon as well as listening to the listeners and planning for continued transformation Her own goal is simple to inspire and equip clergy to make changes that will enhance the transformative power of their preaching To connect with others reading Preaching That Matters and to find an online accountability partner join the book's Google communities International Opportunities in the Arts Mary

Sherman,2019-09-03 This book is a compilation of papers derived from talks presented at TransCultural Exchange s 2018 International Conference on Opportunities in the Arts The aim of these talks was to inspire artists to think across disciplines and cultures and to suggest other career models beyond the typical studio to gallery museum model Much of this content is unique in that it not only addresses the practical needs of artists but even more importantly it does so in the context of today s global reality As artists have noted on post Conference surveys this information is the missing link in the art world the bridge between academic and real world practice between a local and international career in the arts By making this information available long after the Conference s end and to those who could not directly participate in the Conference many more artists will have access to where to find jobs residency programs and funding for their work information on how to put together successful residency applications how to market their work and other professional development programming In addition they and interested members of the public will have access to the Conference talks on what leading artists are doing across disciplines with new technologies and in the public sphere Communication Catalog 2005 Neil Thomson,2004-09
