Irish women and the creation of modern Catholicism, 1850-1950 Cara Delay, 2019-03-26 This is the first book length study to investigate the place of lay Catholic women in modern Irish history It analyses the intersections of gender class and religion by exploring the roles that middle class working class and rural poor women played in the evolution of Irish Catholicism and thus the creation of modern Irish identities The book demonstrates that in an age of Church growth and renewal stretching from the aftermath of the Great Famine through the Free State years lay women were essential to all aspects of Catholic devotional life including both home based religion and public rituals It also reveals that women by rejecting negotiating and reworking Church dictates complicated Church and clerical authority Irish women and the creation of modern Catholicism re evaluates the relationship between the institutional Church the clergy and women positioning lay Catholic women as central actors in the making of modern Ireland No Strings Attached Rachel Nafziger Hartzler, 2013-04-30 No Strings Attached is the story of a Mennonite congregation in Indiana that existed for eighty six years The congregation began during the social and religious turmoil of the 1920s when some Mennonites in North America held to rigid doctrines and ethics implemented by central authority and others operated with a congregational polity and became more assimilated into secular culture The struggle between these two different understandings of faithfulness was most passionately played out in northern Indiana Placing the narrative of this congregation within the context of 500 years of Mennonite history illustrates the grace and the tension that has both beset and empowered a unique group of people who began as radical reformers Although no strings attached refers to the women s headwear during the 1920s which had no strings it could also be the story of the pastor eating lunch on the peak of the steep roof of the church building Reflecting on stories of these Mennonite people is an invitation to move into the future with courageous hope Believing and behaving differently has not prevented Middlebury Mennonites from treating each other respectfully living in a community of love joy and peace and offering God s healing and hope to each other and to the world

Romantic Catholics Carol E. Harrison,2014-03-11 In this well written and imaginatively structured book Carol E Harrison brings to life a cohort of nineteenth century French men and women who argued that a reformed Catholicism could reconcile the divisions in French culture and society that were the legacy of revolution and empire They include most prominently Charles de Montalembert Pauline Craven Am lie and Fr d ric Ozanam L opoldine Hugo Maurice de Gu rin and Victorine Monniot The men and women whose stories appear in Romantic Catholics were bound together by filial love friendship and in some cases marriage Harrison draws on their diaries letters and published works to construct a portrait of a generation linked by a determination to live their faith in a modern world Rejecting both the atomizing force of revolutionary liberalism and the increasing intransigence of the church hierarchy the romantic Catholics advocated a middle way in which a revitalized Catholic faith and liberty formed the basis for modern society Harrison traces the history of nineteenth century France and in parallel the life course of these individuals as they grow up learn independence and take on the responsibilities and disappointments of adulthood Although the shared goals of the romantic Catholics were never realized in French politics and culture Harrison s work offers a significant corrective to the traditional understanding of the opposition between religion and the secular republican tradition in France
