Snapshots of the Soul Molly Thomasy Blasing, 2021-07-15 Snapshots of the Soul considers how photography has shaped Russian poetry from the early twentieth century to the present day Drawing on theories of the lyric and the elegy the social history of technology and little known archival materials Molly Thomasy Blasing offers close readings of poems by Boris Pasternak Marina Tsvetaeva Joseph Brodsky and Bella Akhmadulina as well as by the late and post Soviet poets Andrei Sen Sen kov Arkadii Dragomoshchenko and Kirill Medvedev to understand their fascination with the visual language representational power and metaphorical possibilities offered by the camera and the photographic image Within the context of long standing anxieties about the threat that visual media pose to literary culture Blasing finds that these poets were attracted to the affinities and tensions that exist between the lyric or elegy and the snapshot Snapshots of the Soul reveals that at the core of each poet's approach to writing the photograph is the urge to demonstrate the superior ability of poetic language to capture and convey human experience Open Access edition funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities Reports United States Information Agency. Photographing Central Asia Svetlana Gorshenina, Sergei Abashin, Bruno De Cordier, Tatiana Saburova, 2022-09-06 This volume addresses new theoretical approaches in visual and memory studies that prompted to rethink of the photography of Russian Turkestan of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Attempts to relate the visual unknown documentations to postcolonial criticism also opened up new interpretive arenas helping to decentralize the analysis of the history of photography. The aim of this volume is to interpret photography as a specific tool that reifies reality subjectively frames it and fits it into various political ideological commercial scientific and artistic contexts. Without reducing the entire argument to the binary of photography and power the authors reveal the different modes of seeing that involve distinct cultural norms social practices power relations levels of technology and networks for circulating photography and that determined the manner of its re use in constructing various images of Central Asia. The volume demonstrates that photography was the cornerstone of imperial media governance and discourse construction in colonial Turkestan of the tsarist and early Soviet periods. The various cases show the complex mechanisms by which images of Turkestan were created remembered or forgotten from the nineteenth until the twenty first century. The book should appeal to scholars of the Russian Empire and Central Asia of history of photography and visual culture of memory studies. It should be appropriate for use in upper level undergraduate courses and even a broader public.

The Soviet Photograph, 1924-1937 Margarita Tupitsyn, 1996-01-01. Tupitsyn challenges the view that the Soviet avant garde peaked in the 1920s and was subsequently forced to conform with Bolshevik politics. Instead she asserts that photography during this period represented the last great experiment in the search for the most effective ways to connect art radical politics and the masses. Investigating the means by which the new visual tools for disseminating revolutionary messages were adapted to the needs of Stalinist propaganda Tupitsyn relates major examples of single frame photography and photomontage to such events as the implementation of the New Economic Policy Lenin's death and Stalin's first and second Five Year Plans and to mounting censorship of the arts She also establishes a link between the writings of critics and the development of photography and photomontage at this time The book presents previously unpublished material from Klutis's letters Rodchenko's public lectures Lissitzky's late writings on the mass media and Kulagina's personal diaries as well as many previously unknown photographs Subjective Objective Andrés Mario Zervigón, 2017 Generously illustrated with photographs from early twentieth century reformers to contemporary artists this collection of essays re-examines the genre of social documentary photography through the shifting lens of photographic objectivity modes of dissemination and the passions animating documentary projects While the public's acceptance of photographs as visual evidence made documentary photography possible canny interventions employed by image makers and their editors alternately exploit and dismantle assumptions of the medium's transparency testing our wish to see pictures inspire social change Among the photographers included in the exhibition and book are Berenice Abbott Max Alpert William Castellana Walker Evans Larry Fink LaToya Ruby Frazier Lewis Hine Boris Ignatovich Dorothea Lange Igor Moukhin Gordon Parks Alexander Rodchenko Arthur Rothstein Sebastião Salgado Arkady Shaikhet Aaron Siskind W Eugene Smith Weegee et al
