

Challenging Behavior in Children

Understanding and managing children's behavior that challenges us

Reframe Perspective

Shift the view from 'challenging behavior' to 'behavior that challenges us' to better understand children's communication needs.

Prevention Over Reaction

Establish supportive environments that align with children's developmental needs to prevent challenging behaviors proactively.

Connection Before Correction

Build strong relationships to foster trust, enabling children to be more receptive to behavioral guidance.

Movement Matters

Recognize that physical movement is essential for child development, supporting learning and emotional regulation.

Recognize Unmet Needs

Identify unmet needs behind behaviors: children act out when they feel misunderstood or neglected.
