Turkish Iranian cooperation has visibly intensified in recent years thanks in part to Turkish energy needs and Iran s vast oil and natural gas resources However Turkey and Iran tend to be rivals rather than close partners While they may share certain economic and security interests especially regarding the Kurdish issue their interests are at odds in many areas across the Middle East Turkey s support for the opposition in Syria Iran s only true state ally in the Middle East is one example Iraq has also become a field of growing competition between Turkey and Iran Iran s nuclear program has been a source of strain and divergence in U S Turkish relations However the differences between the United States and Turkey regarding Iran s nuclear program are largely over tactics not strategic goals Turkey s main fear is that Iran s acquisition of nuclear arms could lead to a nuclear arms race in the Middle East This in turn could increase pressure on the Turkish government to consider developing its own nuclear weapon capability U S and Turkish interests have become more convergent since the onset of the Syrian crisis However while U S and Turkish interests in the Middle East closely overlap they are not identical Thus the United States should not expect Turkey to follow its policy toward Iran unconditionally Turkey has enforced United Nations sanctions against Iran but given Ankara s close energy ties to Tehran may be reluctant to undertake the harshest measures against Iran Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1891 Oildom ,1922 The Journal of Electrical Workers and Operators ,1924 Annual Report of the State Corporation Commission of Virginia Virginia.
