Changing Uganda Holger Bernt Hansen, Forskningsrådet for udviklingsforskning (Denmark), 1991 Yoweri Museveni battled to power in 1986 His government has impressed many observers as Uganda's most innovative since it gained independence from Britain in 1962 The Economist recommended it as a model for other African states struggling to develop their resources in the best interests of their peoples But where was change to start At the bottom in building resistance committees or at the top in tough negotiations with the IMF How was it to continue Was it in the restructuring of the national army in increasing respect for human rights in the reform of education in tackling AIDS or in getting Ugandans to speak a common language Was it in building more viable survival strategies for the poorest Ugandans or in restructuring the national constitution The last five years have shown a radical approach to Uganda's dilemmas Holger Bernt Hansen and Michael Twaddle previously edited Uganda Now It was brought together at a significant moment just as President Museveni was gaining power in 1985-6 It was so much in demand that it even entered the magendo market on the streets of Kampala The book which is still in print was described by The Canadian Journal of African Studies as virtually a mini encyclopedia of Uganda and by The African Studies Review as the best overview of Uganda's trauma in the last two decades The editors have assembled another team of Ugandan and international scholars to review the dilemmas of introducing revolutionary changes in an African country deeply affected by structural adjustment plans which have been imposed from outside

Museveni's Long March from Guerrilla to Statesman Ondoga Ori Amaza, 1998 The author joined Yoweri Museveni's rebel army in 1982 and was subsequently a member of the Constituent Assembly which produced Uganda's constitution Published posthumously the book tells the inside story of a truly successful revolution and the rise to power of President Museveni He provides a detailed account of the overthrow of Milton Obote's oppressive regime and the military dictatorship of General Tito Okello He explains how Museveni and the National Resistance Army were able to gain power in Uganda by principled leadership and a national programme that has eschewed sectarianism and factionalism to facilitate a lasting and prosperous peace in what is now one of the fastest growing economies in Africa Women & Politics in Uganda Aili Mari Tripp,2000 Uganda has attracted much attention and political visibility for its significant economic recovery after a catastrophic decline In her groundbreaking book Aili Mari Tripp provides extensive data and analysis of patterns of political behavior and institutions by focusing on the unique success of indigenous women s organizations Tripp explores why the women s movement grew so dramatically in such a short time after the National Resistant Movement took over in 1986 Unlike many African countries where organizations and institutions are controlled by a ruling party or regime the Ugandan women s movement gained its momentum by remaining autonomous An Explorer of Changing Horizons: William Edgar Geil Philip Whitwell Wilson,1927 The African Review ,1992 A journal of African politics development and international affairs Postcolonial Subjectivities in Africa Pnina Werbner,2002 These essays on postcolonial subjectivities cross the frontiers of critical theory by illuminating the contradictory predicaments Africans confront in strikingly different parts of the continent at the start of the 21st century The focus is on the making of subjectivities as a process which is political a matter of subjugation to state authority moral reflected in the conscience and agency of subjects who bear rights duties and obligations and realised existentially in the subjects consciousness of their personal or intimate relations The notion of agency is interrogated without lapsing into the new Afro pessimism The essays recognise postcolonies troubled by state decline and increasing exploitation dispossession and marginalisation but avoid Afro pessimism s reduction of subjects to mere victims Even more against the grain of conventional postcolonial studies is the radical questioning of the force of modern subjectivism in struggles for control of identity autonomy and explicit consciousness and through artistic self fashioning in globally driven consumption With substantial cases based on autobiography personal experience and long term scholarly fieldwork in countries as diverse as Madagascar Kenya Uganda Sudan Botswana and Cameroon the book opens out a fresh field for comparative research and theory on postcolonial transformations in intersubjectivity This is to take seriously the people s perception so widespread in postcolonial Africa that to live life to the full is to live it in interdependence in conviviality if possible that care and respect for others indeed civility is a precious and indeed precarious condition of survival and as such is the object of recognised strategies for its conscious defence and that because significant others are opaque never being totally knowable uncertainty ambivalence and contingency are inescapable conditions of human existence The Politician's Handbook ,1901 Uganda's Katikiro in England Ham Mukasa,1904 The Parliamentary Debates (official Report). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1920 Contains the 4th session of the 28th Parliament through the 1st session of the 48th Parliament The Missionary Review of the World ,1907 Journal of the African Society African Society,1912 Journal of the Royal African Society ,1912 Adolescence: Changes in the senses and the voice ; Evolution and the feelings and instincts characteristic of normal adolescence ; Adolescent love ;
