Easter Snapshots:

Being Brett Douglas Hobbie, 1996-12 Douglas Hobbie recounts the harrowing account of his daughter's struggle with Hodgkin's disease. This is a record of change and perseverance that pushes past the myths and unreality that often stimulate us from death and dying.

The Source for Effective Church Service Planning, 2003 A comprehensive listing of service tested programming material designed to supplement a church's creative process of service planning. Second edition.

From My Backyard to the Edge of the Galaxy Mike Wilson, 2009-01-29 A collection of poetic observations on everything from the cosmic to everyday living. Includes some Sci-Fi poems and at the back of the book a few short stories for the reader's enjoyment.

Easter Snapshots Donna Lagerquist, 2002-07-01 This sketch looks at three broad areas of life: family, work, and church. Six short scenes, two from each, confront us with the stark contrast between relationships rooted in love and mutual respect and those driven by self-interests. The two family scenes contrast a family enjoying the making of memories and the free flow of trust with one in which trust has been broken by unfaithfulness and addiction. One of the work place scenes depicts the enthusiasm of two friends embarking on a business partnership while the other scene shows the once-trust-filled partnership dissolving in bankruptcy, bitterness, and blame. The two church scenes contrast the healing impact of a church filled with love with a church that damages people by preaching graceless morality and judgment. This sketch is uniquely suited to an interactive format allowing for each scene to be presented at a strategic point during a message.

At Willow Creek this was presented Easter 2000. Keywords: Easter, Love vs Selfishness, Character, Christian Lifestyle, Serving Others, Relationships with others. Cast: 5 males, 2 females, 2 children.

The Third Eye The Third Eye, 2023-06-30 As the story begins, Nessie finds something in her camera that might help the police solve an investigation. Unfortunately, she finds it too late. It does not help because that person has already been tried. When Nessie gets home and finds her best friend April lying face down in a pool of blood, she quickly calls the police. Sadly, the police discover that her best friend is dead. Nessie and her sister Lisa are very close, so Nessie decides to stay with Lisa until she can move out of the apartment she shared with April. A new apartment comes up suddenly thanks to her sister's friend, and Nessie falls in love with it. Soon Nessie's photography studio, Eyclusion, is broken into. Nessie feels that the culprit is connected to April's murder. She wonders if he or she is looking for her. She also wonders if he or she is looking for something in her studio. Nessie is glad to be moved into her new apartment, and she and her sister fix it up, buying new furniture and decor. Unfortunately, the apartment is broken into as well. Nessie walks in on it but she doesn't see who is doing it. She is hit on the back of the head and suffers a concussion that leaves a wound with five stitches. Now she's in the hospital recovering. Fortunately for Nessie, she had just started dating Detective Swarm, the detective on April's case. He hires a company to come in and straighten and clean Nessie's apartment while she's in the hospital. Nessie concentrates on her photography appointments when she gets out of the hospital, as Detective Swarm is called to investigate more cases of dead bodies. He knows they are all linked because each body is laid out just like April's body. Is there a serial killer on the loose? When Detective Swarm finds a dead body with the same shirt Nessie had on when they met, he is horrified. He puts a policeman outside Nessie's apartment door. Nessie isn't happy with it but agrees to stay inside for one night. Who is the killer? What is it he wants from her? Happiness Included

Eve Plumb, 2026-04-28

It's finally time for Jan Jan Jan. As Jan Brady, America's most memorable middle child on the beloved TV sitcom The Brady Bunch, Eve Plumb has been an enduring icon of American pop culture for over 60 years. Now in an engaging, intimate memoir, she shares the behind-the-scenes story of her colorful and impressively versatile Hollywood career and revelatory recollections of her off-camera life along the way, complete with many photos from her private archives.

Recognized world-wide as Jan Brady, the wonderfully misunderstood middle sister on television's The Brady Bunch, actress Eve Plumb has embraced the association that seemed destined at age 10 when she was cast on The Brady Bunch. The iconic 1970s TV series has been in perpetual reruns for five decades and is well-known by three generations of children and adults. Her engaging memoir reveals that her stint on The Brady Bunch was only the beginning of her TV career, a young lady with the confidence and spunk that her on-screen character often humorously lacked. Eve Plumb's six decades as a TV and stage actress reads like a veritable history of the golden age of TV. Her long career began when a talent agent in her Los Angeles neighborhood suggested that the six-year-old audition for a national TV commercial. She was cast, and many commercials followed, including Barbie commercials. Within a year, Eve was being cast in guest star roles, often multiple episodes, in the top TV series of the 60s and 70s: Gunsmoke, Lassie, Family Affair, Mannix, The Big Valley, It Takes a Thief, The Virginian, and Here's Lucy. Following five seasons as ABC's anchor Friday night show The Brady Bunch and recording albums and touring nationally with The Brady Kids singing group, Eve was cast as the lead role in Dawn: Portrait of a Teenage Runaway at age 17. A dramatic departure from the sweet Brady family, the NBC hit TV movie came with a parental discretion warning in the opening titles. The movie's success sparked the highly rated sequel with Eve Plumb, Alexander: The Other Side of Dawn. Continuous guest star roles filled her young adult life as an actress on highly rated TV shows, including The Facts of Life, One Day at a Time, Fantasy Island, Love Boat, Wonder Woman, and a multi-episode sitcom called The Brady Brides, featuring Eve as a young newlywed along with Maureen McCormick from the original series. Eve brought her acting experience to the New York stage. Tony-winning Broadway producer Ken Davenport cast Eve in the lead role for the Times Square debut of Miss Abigail's Guide to Dating, Mating, and Marriage with a six-month run. She also appeared on stage in NY and regionally in Love, Loss, and What I Wore. Eve's recent television credits include A Holiday Spectacular for Hallmark, Law and Order: SVU, Blue Bloods, Bull, Grease Live, Crashing, a recurring role on Hulu's The Path, and as the voice of Big Judy on Praise Petey Today. Eve is a talented visual artist with thirty-five years of experience whose oil paintings have been displayed and sold in galleries here in the U.S. and Europe. Chock full of Brady Bunch nostalgia and the skinny on countless classic TV shows with recollections straight from the set, this is Eve Plumb as you've never seen her. Ideals Easter 1997 Ideals Publications
