Cowen, 2003-09-02 Doctrines of Development sets out a critique of the idea of practice of development by exploring the history of development theory and action from the early nineteenth century to the late twentieth century from Britain to Quebec and Kenya      Technology, Economic Growth and the Labour Process Phil Blackburn, Rod Coombs, Kenneth Green, 1985-06-18      Between Market, State, and Kibbutz Christopher Warhurst, 1999 This book focuses on the kibbutz movement in Israel and examines communal socialist industry and the consequences of its embeddedness within a national polity and the global market economy As a consequence the subject is firmly located within the debates about the internationalization of capitalism and parallel debates about the future of socialism within the global market economy The text explores the management and organization of kibbutz industry as an essential feature of communal socialism      Capital: The process of capitalist production Karl Marx, 1906      Handbook of Research on Employee Voice Adrian Wilkinson, Jimmy Donaghey, Tony Dundon, Richard B. twenty odd years since the original Models in Geography was published It is an even shorter time since the first tentative steps were taken towards an alternative formulation of what might constitute a geographical perspective within the social sciences What came to be called the political economy perspective has progressed with remarkable speed and energy to generate its own framework of conceptualization and analysis its own questions and debates The papers in these two volumes are witness to the richness and range of the work which has developed over this relatively short period within the political economy approach Moreover from being a debate within an institutionally defined discipline of geography to introducing into that discipline ideas and discussions from the wider fields of philosophy and social science and the humanities more generally it has now flowered into a consistent part of enquiries that span the entire realm of social studies
