Asian Religions in British Columbia Larry DeVries,Don Baker,Dan

Overmyer,2011-01-01 British Columbia is Canada's most ethnically diverse province. Although the presence of Asian religions is felt and discussed in many regions, we know little about the religions that accompanied immigrants from Asia or how they are practised today. Asian Religions in British Columbia brings together fourteen religious studies scholars who offer intimate portraits of local religious groups including Hindus and Sikhs from South Asia, Buddhist organizations from Southeast Asia, and Tibetan, Japanese, and Chinese religions from East and Central Asia. Although the geographical focus is particular, the conceptual focus is broad; the authors explore each religious tradition in the larger context of Canadian multiculturalism. As the first comprehensive and comparative examination of Asian religions in British Columbia, this book is mandatory reading for teachers, policy makers, scholars of British Columbia history, and Asian Canadian studies, or anyone who wants to be well informed about this province and nation.

Our Merciful Mother Gaṅgā Jaya Vijaya Dāsa,2000 On the cult of Gaṅgā Hindu deity Hinduism and Popular Cults in Mauritius Suzanne Chazan-Gillig,Pavitrinand Ramhota,2022-08-12 This book presents an original and comprehensive reading of the contemporary Mauritian society where Hinduism is practised by more than half of the population. It discusses themes such as the genesis of the Mauritian multicultural society, religious and cultural transformations, the cult of kalimai, the building of social relations, and the birth of associations, and the link between Mauritian Hinduism and sugar plantation economy, to highlight the interactions of the religious with the political economy of the nation. First of its kind, this book with its rich ethnographic accounts will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of religion, Hinduism, social anthropology, sociology, cultural studies, diaspora studies, sociology of religion, and African studies.

Hindu Festivals Dr. Yatendra Sharma,2025-06-04 Bharat, a land of staggering diversity, celebrates festivals for every reason and every season. These festivals are the expressions of a culture that lives in a state of perpetual celebration. They are the moments when the mundane transcends into the magnificent, bringing life to a state of exuberance and enthusiasm. Each festival here weaves together stories of the past with the aspirations of the present. The festivals are as varied as the people themselves, celebrating everything from the bounty of harvests to the memories of historical legends, and from the reverence for deities to the cycles of the moon and sun. Homes come alive with lights and colors, new garments add splendor to the gatherings, and the air resonates with the melodies of music and the rhythm of dance steps. Feasting tables unite families and friends, as every festival becomes a momentous occasion to rejuvenate the bonds and share joy. In Bharat, festivals are not just days on a calendar; they are exuberant expressions of a culture that cherishes every shade of life's palette.
