Dialectics In The Arts:

The Dialectics of Art John Molyneux, 2020-08-04 To the question of what is art it is often simply responded that art is whatever is produced by the artist For John Molyneux this clearly circular answer is deeply unsatisfying In a tour de force spanning renaissance Italy and the Dutch Republic to contemporary leading figures The Dialectics of Art instead approaches its subject matter as a distinct field of creative human labour that emerges alongside and in opposition to the alienation and commodification brought about by capitalism The pieces and individuals Molyneux examines from Michelangelo's Slaves to Rembrandt's Jewish Bride to the vast drip paintings of Jackson Pollock are presented as embodying the social contradictions of their times giving art an inherently political relevance In its relationship of creative and dialectical tension to prevailing social relationships and norms such art points beyond the existing order of things hinting at a potential future society not based on alienated labour in which creative production becomes the property and practice of all Dialectics in the Arts Catherine M. Cameron, 1996 Dialectics in the Arts [microform] : Composer Ideologies and Culture Change Catherine Mary Cameron, 1982 Dialectics in Modern Art Jonathan S. Lynton, 1976 Art, Language and Figure in Merleau-Ponty Rajiv Kaushik, 2013-09-12 Applying Merleau Ponty's figured philosophy to discussions the work of Paul Klee and Cy Twombly Kaushik offers an original view of artwork As the first sustained treatment into the relationship between art and language this is an important contribution to Merleau Ponty's philosophy and scholars of aesthetics Dialectical Passions Gail Day, 2010-12-22 Representing a new generation of theorists reaffirming the radical dimensions of art Gail Day launches a bold critique of late twentieth century art theory and its often reductive analysis of cultural objects Exploring core debates in discourses on art from the New Left to theories of critical postmodernism and beyond Day counters the belief that recent tendencies in art fail to be adequately critical She also challenges the political inertia that results from these conclusions Day organizes her defense around critics who have engaged substantively with emancipatory thought and social process T J Clark Manfredo Tafuri Fredric Jameson Benjamin H D Buchloh and Hal Foster among others She maps the tension between radical dialectics and left nihilism and assesses the interpretation and internalization of negation in art theory Chapters confront the claim that exchange and equivalence have subsumed the use value of cultural objects and with it critical distance and interrogate the proposition of completed nihilism and the metropolis put forward in the politics of Italian operaismo Day covers the debates on symbol and allegory waged within the context of 1980s art and their relation to the writings of Walter Benjamin and Paul de Man She also examines common conceptions of mediation totality negation and the politics of anticipation A necessary unsettling of received wisdoms Dialectical Passions recasts emancipatory reflection in aesthetics art and architecture A Dialectic of Centuries Dick Higgins, 1978 Cultural Writing This classic of alternative art theory is available again in this second edition Dick Higgins was co founder of Happenings and later Fluxus He was active in music studying with John Cage and Henry Cowell and is the author of many books of poetry including Buster Keaton

Enters Into Paradise Left Hand and Book About Love And Death Something Else also available from SPD From his early 1964 essay on Intermedia which gave the term to the language up through the his influential essay on the concept of an allusive referential the impulse of his work was to describe rather than to prescribe These essays continue to offer tools which may be useful in developing theories and opinions for the next generation of artists writers and critics A Dialectic Of Centuries is book to work within the new century Cyclic dialectics, the fine arts and a category of the type T'edo Dundua, Nino Silagaže, 1997 The Art of Dialectic between Dialogue and Rhetoric Marta Spranzi, 2011-06-22 This book reconstructs the tradition of dialectic from Aristotle's Topics its founding text up to its renaissance in 16th century Italy and focuses on the role of dialectic in the production of knowledge Aristotle defines dialectic as a structured exchange of questions and answers and thus links it to dialogue and disputation while Cicero develops a mildly skeptical version of dialectic identifies it with reasoning in utramque partem and connects it closely to rhetoric These two interpretations constitute the backbone of the living tradition of dialectic and are variously developed in the Renaissance against the Medieval background The book scrutinizes three separate contexts in which these developments occur Rudolph Agricola's attempt to develop a new dialectic in close connection with rhetoric Agostino Nifo's thoroughly Aristotelian approach and its use of the newly translated commentaries of Alexander of Aphrodisias and Averroes and Carlo Sigonio's literary theory of the dialogue form which is centered around Aristotle's Topics Today Aristotelian dialectic enjoys a new life within argumentation theory the final chapter of the book briefly revisits these contemporary developments and draws some general epistemological conclusions linking the tradition of dialectic to a fallibilist view of knowledge The Dialectics of Art and Life Sylvia Lehrer, 1985 A pluralistic approach to Plath's art drawing information from the chronology of her life and art The study portrays the interrelationship between the woman and her work the dialectic of life and art from early poems to final poetic statements

System and Dialectics of Art John Graham, 1971 Surface and Depth Richard Shusterman, 2002 A paradox of surface and depth pervades the field of aesthetics How can art's surface meanings and qualities be properly appreciated without understanding the cultural context that shapes their creation and perception But exploring such underlying cultural conditions challenges the perception of those qualities and meanings of aesthetic surface that constitute the captivating power of art If aesthetics deals with both surface and depth impassioned immediacy yet also critical distance of judgment how can this doubleness be held together in one philosophical vision In his new book Richard Shusterman explores the dialectics of surface and depth by examining key issues in the philosophy of art and culture from the logic of interpretation and evaluation to the roots of taste and convention from the meanings of aesthetic purity and immediacy to the role of nature theory and history in our experience and understanding of art In treating these topics Shusterman combines the methods of analytic philosophy critical theory and poststructuralism to arrive at new positions displaying the philosophical versatility originality of vision and graceful accessible writing that have become his trademark Surface and Depth is crowned by a new definition of art as dramatization Negative Dialectics and Event Vangelis Giannakakis,2021-11-04 History is replete with false and unfulfilled promises as well as singular acts of courage resilience and ingenuity These episodes have led to significant changes in the way people think and act in the world or have set the stage for such transformations in the form of rational expectations in theory and the hopeful anticipations of dialectical imagination Negative Dialectics and Event Nonidentity Culture and the Historical Adequacy of Consciousness revisits some of Theodor W Adorno s most influential writings and theoretical interventions to argue not only that his philosophy is uniquely suited to bring such events into sharp relief and reflect on their entailments but also that an effective historical consciousness today would be a consciousness awake to the events that interpellate and shape it into existence More broadly Vangelis Giannakakis presents a compelling argument in support of the view that the critical theory developed by the first generation of the Frankfurt School still has much to offer in terms of both cultivating insights into contemporary human experience and building resistance against states of affairs that impede human flourishing and happiness John Wycliffe and His English Precursors Gotthard Victor Lechler,1904 Cyclic dialectics, the fine arts and a category of the theme T'edo Dundua,1996 Dialectics ,1937
