A Gift From Beyond:

A Gift from Beyond Anthony L. Williams, 1988      Beyond the Gift James Osbert Browne Jr, 2022-01-19 God is not impressed by what He gave us in the form of our gifts and talents but He is impressed by what we do with the deposit He has invested in us In our world today society celebrates the person who is gifted That person may be a great athlete or a master musician However what impresses people does not impress God because He is the one who gave the gift in the first place Every human being on the planet was born with a unique God given ability to arrive at their purpose in life In other words you are gifted for the assignment that is on your life The problem in our world is that many people just arrive at their gifts but never make it to the otherside of their destiny and assignmnet This book is design to show you how to get to the otherside of who you were born to be      Giving Beyond the Gift Elliot R. Wolfson, 2014-02-03 This book explores the co dependency of monotheism and idolatry by examining the thought of several prominent twentieth century Jewish philosophers Cohen Buber Rosenzweig and Levinas While all of these thinkers were keenly aware of the pitfalls of scriptural theism to differing degrees they each succumbed to the temptation to personify transcendence even as they tried either to circumvent or to restrain it by apophatically purging kataphatic descriptions of the deity Derrida and Wyschogrod by contrast carried the project of denegation one step further embarking on a path that culminated in the aporetic suspension of belief and the consequent removal of all images from God a move that seriously compromises the viability of devotional piety The inquiry into apophasis transcendence and immanence in these Jewish thinkers is symptomatic of a larger question Recent attempts to harness the apophatic tradition to construct a viable postmodern negative theology a religion without religion are not radical enough Not only are these philosophies of transcendence guilty of a turn to theology that defies the phenomenological presupposition of an immanent phenomenality but they fall short on their own terms inasmuch as they persist in employing metaphorical language that personalizes transcendence and thereby runs the risk of undermining the irreducible alterity and invisibility attributed to the transcendent other The logic of apophasis if permitted to run its course fully would exceed the need to posit some form of transcendence that is not ultimately a facet of immanence Apophatic theologies accordingly must be supplanted by a more far reaching apophasis that surpasses the theolatrous impulse lying coiled at the crux of theism an apophasis of apophasis based on accepting an absolute nothingness to be distinguished from the nothingness of an absolute that does not signify the unknowable One but rather the manifold that is the pleromatic abyss at being s core Hence the much celebrated metaphor of the gift must give way to the more neutral and less theologically charged notion of an unconditional givenness in which the distinction between giver and given collapses To think givenness in its most elemental phenomenological sense is to allow the apparent to appear as given without presuming a causal agency that would turn that given into a gift      The New Yearbook for Phenomenology and Phenomenological Philosophy Ludger Hagedorn, James Dodd, 2015-12-22 Religion War and the Crisis of Modernity A Special Issue Dedicated to the Philosophy of Jan Pato ka The New Yearbook for Phenomenology and Phenomenological Philosophy provides an annual international forum for phenomenological research in the spirit of Husserl s groundbreaking work and the extension of this work by such figures as Scheler Heidegger Sartre Levinas Merleau Ponty and Gadamer Contributors Ivan Chvat k Nicolas de Warren James Dodd Eddo Evink Ludger Hagedorn Jean Luc Marion Claire Perryman Holt Marcia S Cavalcante Schuback Michael Staudigl Christian Sternad and ubica U n k

The Move Beyond Form M. Hughes,2013-03-12 Fictional narratives of the late twentieth century often cross boundaries This study argues that the undoing of structure in postmodern art form demands a different way of thinking and represents a commentary on the material and social conditions of the late twentieth century and beyond

Is Feminist Philosophy Philosophy? Emanuela Bianchi,1999 Drawing attention to the vexed relationship between feminist theory and philosophy Is Feminist Philosophy Philosophy demonstrates the spectrum of significant work being done at this contested boundary The volume offers clear statements by seventeen distinguished scholars as well as a full range of philosophical approaches it also presents feminist philosophers in conversation both as feminists and as philosophers making the book accessible to a wide audience
