Cannibal Romance:

A Cannibal Love Affair Reba B. Lawrence, 1923      The Orient in Chaucer and Medieval Romance Carol Falvo Heffernan, 2003 A study of romance and the Orient in Chaucer and in anonymous popular metrical romances The idea of the Orient is a major motif in Chaucer and medieval romance and this new study reveals much about its use and significance setting the literature in its historical context and thereby offering fresh new readings of a number of texts The author begins by looking at Chaucer's and Gower's treatment of the legend of Constance as told by the Man of Law demonstrating that Chaucer's addition of a pattern of mercantile details highlights the commercial context of the eastern Mediterranean in which the heroine is placed she goes on to show how Chaucer's portraits of Cleopatra and Dido from the Legend of Good Women read against parallel texts especially in Boccaccio reveal them to be loci of medieval orientalism She then examines Chaucer's inventive handling of details taken from Eastern sources and analogues in the Squire's Tale showing how he shapes them into the western form of interlace The author concludes by looking at two romances Floris and Blancheflur and Le Bone Florence of Rome she argues that elements in Floris of sibling incest are legitimised into a quest for the beloved and demonstrates that Le Bone Florence be related to analogous oriental tales about heroic women who remain steadfast in virtue against persecution and adversity Professor CAROL F HEFFERNAN teaches in the Department of English Rutgers University      Cannibalism in High Medieval English Literature H. Blurton, 2016-09-23 This book reads the surprisingly widespread representations of cannibals and cannibalism in medieval English literature as political metaphors that were central to England's ongoing process of articulating cultural and national identity      Untold Horror George A. Romero, John Landis, Dave Alexander, Joe Dante, Brian Yuzna, 2021-08-31 Insightful interviews of horror legends George Romero John Landis Joe Dante Brian Yuzna and more by former editor in chief of Rue Morgue Dave Alexander about the scariest horror movies never made Take a behind the scenes look into development hell to find the most frightening horror movies that never were from unmade Re Animator sequels to alternate takes on legendary franchises like Frankenstein and Dracula Features art scripts and other production material from unmade films that still might make you scream with insights from dozens of directors screenwriters and producers with decades of experience Featured Interviews With George A Romero John Landis Joe Dante Vincenzo Natali Brian Yuzna William Lustig William Malone Buddy Giovinazzo Tim Sullivan Richard Raaphorst Ruggero Deodato Jim Shooter Bob Layton David J Skal      The Invention of Race in the European Middle Ages Geraldine Heng, 2018-03-08 This book challenges the common belief that race and racism are phenomena that began only in the modern era      Spoiling the Cannibals' Fun? Wojciech Kalaga, Tadeusz Rachwał, 2005 Spoiling the Cannibals Fun is not a volume about Captain Cook unless one thinks the story of his having been eaten in the Polynesian tropics is not so much about the nourishing of the barbarians with a white man's flesh as one which raises a number of questions relating to broadly understood cultural encounters in which some sort of cannibalisation is always at stake For example an encounter with the other is inevitably also an encounter of what Penelope Deutscher sees as the cannibal or eating subject who is always already the other in us an encounter which questions the integrity of the subject's boundaries This volume takes up such various metaphorical senses of cannibalism and cannibalisation and explores the ways they function within diverse domains and niches of culture and elsewhere
