Developments In Statistics Volume 1:

Developments in Statistics Paruchuri R. Krishnaiah,1980 Developments in Statistics Paruchuri R.

Krishnaiah,2014-06-28 Developments in Statistics Volume 4 reviews developments in the theory and applications of statistics covering topics such as time series identifiability and model selection and missing data The application of structured exploratory data analysis to human genetics specifically the mode of inheritance is also considered Comprised of four chapters this volume begins with an introduction to spectrum parameter estimation in time series analysis restricting the discussion to the simplest univariate that is scalar real valued time series X_t An accurate formulation of the general problem is presented The accuracy of different consistent estimates obtained for large but fixed values of T maximum likelihood estimates Whittle's estimates and simplified asymptotically efficient estimates is also compared The next chapter deals with identifiability and modeling in econometrics focusing on the theoretical framework relating realization theory identification and parametrization The realization theory is illustrated on various levels of generality by means of examples related to econometrics along with some advanced applications of system theory The book also examines inference on parameters of multivariate normal populations when some data are missing before concluding with an evaluation of structured exploratory data as applied to the study of the mode of inheritance This monograph will be of interest to students and practitioners of statistics

OECD Development Pathways Multi-dimensional Review of Uruguay Volume 1: Initial Assessment

OECD,Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean,2014-08-14 This first volume of OECD's multidimensional review presents an initial assessment and finds that Uruguay has benefited from a favourable economic context over the last decade but faces significant challenges

Status, technological innovations, and industry development needs of mud crab (Scylla spp.) aquaculture Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2025-02-23 The FAO Expert Workshop on Mud Crab Aquaculture held in Singapore brought together leading experts to address critical challenges and emerging opportunities in the sustainable farming of Scylla spp. mud crabs Driven by escalating demand for both hard shell and soft shell mud crabs the sector faces constraints such as overfishing habitat degradation reliance on wild seedstock and unsustainable farming practices The workshop provided a collaborative platform to evaluate the current state of the industry identify technological innovations and set a course for advancing sustainability and resilience in mud crab aquaculture Central to the discussions was the transition from capture based to hatchery based production systems to secure consistent and high quality seedstock Experts highlighted the importance of domestication and selective breeding to enhance aquaculture yields The development of formulated feeds reducing reliance on wild sourced feed and the integration of advanced technologies such as probiotics and recirculating aquaculture systems RAS were identified as critical pathways to address water quality biosecurity and production efficiency challenges Innovative farming system approaches were presented including sustainable polyculture systems and the adoption of cellular farming techniques to mitigate cannibalism

and improve survival rates The potential of the soft shell crab sector for value addition through enhanced post harvest practices packaging and processing was also discussed though key bottlenecks such as limited seedstock availability forced moulting practices and inconsistent farming standards need to be adequately addressed Broader ecological concerns such as the overexploitation of wild populations and the degradation of mangrove habitats were highlighted Experts advocated strengthened fishery management habitat restoration and policy interventions to mitigate these issues Additionally the role of advanced technologies such as IoT enabled systems digital training tools and automation was underscored as transformative for achieving scalability and operational efficiency in mud crab farming Aligned with FAO s Blue Transformation initiative the workshop outlined a comprehensive strategy to promote sustainable development in the mud crab aquaculture sector Key recommendations included establishing broodstock banks deploying cost effective disease screening enhancing international collaboration and scaling capacity building programmes to share knowledge and technologies across diverse aquaculture contexts By fostering innovation improving productivity and addressing environmental challenges the outcomes of the workshop aim to strengthen global food security enhance aquaculture value chains and sustain the livelihoods of communities dependent on mud crab production

The Economic Development of Japan Ryoshin Minami,1986-12-12 In this book Minami studies the last hundred years of Japan s remarkable economic growth from the Meiji period up to the present day First he reveals the factors which account for Japan s successful economic take off during the Meiji period Secondly he explains why Japan achieved a more rapid rate of economic growth than other developed countries This forms the major part of the book and will interest those people in the developed countries who have felt the full force of Japan s export drive and whose own industries are consequently in decline Finally the author evaluates the results of Japan s economic growth and makes predictions for its future The book makes a comprehensive survey of the Japanese experience in the pre and postwar periods and points out lessons not only for developed countries but also for developing countries struggling to achieve a similar take off

Tourism And China's Development- Policies, Regional Economic Growth & Ecotourism Clement A Tisdell,Julie Jie Wen,2001-03-15 China s continuing economic reforms since 1978 have substantially altered its economic structure expanding the service sector including the tourist industry The reforms have resulted in spectacular economic growth and a boom in tourism development But China s economic growth has been very uneven regionally and has been cause for political concern The ability of tourism to counteract this uneven development and promote regionally decentralised development is therefore of special interest as is the sustainability of regional tourism which often depends on nature conservation and the presence of minority cultures This book addresses all those issues Although focussed on China it deals with issues such as those involving the sustainability of tourism and convergence and divergence in regional tourism development and economic growth relevant to other geographical areas Annual Reports of the Department of the Interior for the Fiscal Year Ended June 30, 1897 ,1898 Appropriate Technologies for Third World Development Austin Robinson,1979-08-23 Commerce Reports.Nos.1-13.Volume 1 Thirtieth Year.January,February,March,1927. United States Department of Commerce.Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce.,1927 Education pamphlets ,1887 Economic Development in Ghana and Malaysia Samuel K. Andoh,Bernice J. deGannes Scott,Grace Ofori-Abebrese,2020-02-05 Economic Development in Ghana and Malaysia investigates why two countries that appeared to be at more or less the same stage of economic development at one point in time have diverged so substantially At the time of their independence from the UK in 1957 both Ghana and Malaysia were at roughly the same stage of economic development in fact Ghana s real per capita income was slightly ahead of Malaysia s Since then Ghana s development has been sluggish while Malaysia s economy has taken off into sustained growth and today the real per capita income of Malaysia is about five times that of Ghana This volume examines the pre colonial and colonial economies of both countries and the economic policies pursued after independence In doing so it aims to identify policies which might have contributed to Malaysia s development and those which might have slowed Ghana s The authors ask whether lessons can be learned from the successes of countries such as Malaysia This detailed comparative analysis will be useful to students and researchers of development economics as well as public policy makers in developing countries It is written in language which makes it accessible to the general reader The English Catalogue of Books ...: 1801-1836.
