Beyond Leichhardt Glen McLaren, 1996 No Marketing Blurb Patrick White Beyond the Grave Ian Henderson, Anouk Lang, 2015-08-15 Patrick White 1912 1990 won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1973 and remains one of Australia's most celebrated writers In 2006 White's literary executor Barbara Mobbs released a highly significant collection of hitherto unpublished papers reviving mainstream and scholarly interest in his work Patrick White Beyond the Grave considers White's writing in light of the new findings acknowledging his homosexuality in relation to the development of his literary style examining the way he engages his readers and contextualizing his life and oeuvre in relation to London and to London life Thought provoking this collection of original essays represents the work of an outstanding list of White scholars from around the globe and will no doubt inspire further work on White from a rising generation of scholars of twentieth century literature beyond Australia The Last Blank Spaces Dane Kennedy, 2013-03-01 The challenge of opening Africa and Australia to British imperial influence fell to a coterie of proto professional explorers who sought knowledge adventure and fame but often experienced confusion fear and failure Kennedy follows the arc of these explorations from idea to practice intention to outcome myth to reality Ludwig Leichhardt's Ghosts Andrew Wright Hurley, 2018 A fascinating cultural studies account of the afterlife of Leichhardt revealing both German entanglement in British colonialism in Australia and in a broader sense what happens when we maintain an open stance to the ghosts of the past White Vanishing Elspeth Tilley, 2012-01-01 The story of the vulnerable white person vanishing without trace into the harsh Australian landscape is a potent and compelling element in multiple genres of mainstream Australian culture It has been sung in Little Boy Lost brought to life on the big screen in Picnic at Hanging Rock immortalized in Henry Lawson's poems of lost tramps and preserved in the history books tales of Leichhardt or Burke and Wills wandering in mad circles A world wide audience has also witnessed the many layered and oddly strident nature of Australian disappearance symbolism in media coverage of contemporary disappearances such as those of Azaria Chamberlain and Peter Falconio White Vanishing offers a revealing and challenging re examination of Australian disappearance mythology exposing the political utility at its core Drawing on wide ranging examples of the white vanishing myth the book provides evidence that disappearance mythology encapsulates some of the most dominant and durable categories at the heart of white Australian culture and that many of those ideas have their origin in colonial mechanisms of inequality and oppression White Vanishing deliberately and perhaps controversially reminds readers that while power is never absolute or irresistible some narrative threads carry a particularly authoritative inheritance of ideas and power relations through time The Pastoral Review, 1929 The Emu, 1913 Cities in Global Transition Raymond Charles Rauscher, Salim Momtaz, 2016-10-05 This book examines the planning of cities in global transition looking at Australia's Greater Sydney as a case example The focus is on metropolitan districts groups of municipalities within the Greater Sydney region The subjects of global transition and sustainable urban planning SUP are introduced in Chapter 1

How Greater Sydney approaches planning of its region and its districts is then outlined in Chapter 2 In this chapter three case study districts are selected for critiquing planning in the face of population and new development changes The districts beyond the City of Sydney are Sydney Inner West Greater Parramatta and St George The book further outlines a methodology to assess planning practices within each of the municipalities twelve case study municipalities in all within the three districts Included here are State planning principles applying to Greater Sydney with key principals selected to apply to the case study municipalities and to each district as a unit
