Contesting Spirit:

Contesting Spirit Tyler T. Roberts, 1998-10-19 Challenging the dominant scholarly consensus that Nietzsche is simply an enemy of religion Tyler Roberts examines the place of religion in Nietzsche's thought and Nietzsche's thought as a site of religion Roberts argues that Nietzsche's conceptualization and cultivation of an affirmative self require that we interrogate the ambiguities that mark his criticisms of asceticism and mysticism What emerges is a vision of Nietzsche's philosophy as the enactment of a spiritual quest informed by transfigured versions of religious tropes and practices Nietzsche criticizes the ascetic hatred of the body and this worldly life yet engages in rigorous practices of self-denial he sees philosophy as such a practice and affirms the need of imposing suffering on oneself in order to enhance the spirit He dismisses the intoxication of mysticism yet links mysticism power and creativity and describes his own self-transcending experiences The tensions in his relation to religion are closely related to that between negation and affirmation in his thinking in general In Roberts's view Nietzsche's transfigurations of religion offer resources for a postmodern religious imagination Though as a master of suspicion Nietzsche with Freud and Marx is an integral part of modern anti-religion he has the power to take us beyond the flat modern distinction between the secular and the religious a distinction that at the end of modernity begs to be reexamined

Spirit and the Politics of Disablement Sharon V. Betcher, 2007-01-01 Explores the larger significance of disability in cultural political and religious venues Novel aspects of Christian theological tradition emerge in this light Highly original and thought provoking

Foucault, Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue Henrique Pinto, 2020-11-25 Foucault Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue develops a new model for interfaith dialogue using the work of the French historian of ideas Michel Foucault The author argues that it is the injustice done to the Other by Roman Catholic Protestant and other centred and unitary models of religious pluralism that allows the introduction of Foucault's de-centring of transcendence and human reason as an alternative model for understanding religious diversity and the role it ought to play in the constitution of the self and the making of society This Foucaultian approach provides a new direction for interfaith dialogue in the modern world and leads to an ethical rather than a nihilistic position while fostering a non-unitary theology of religious pluralism and an open textured process of self-transformation The author's original and imaginative application and expansion of Foucault's concept of the More from The Archaeology of Knowledge 1969 makes important and original contributions to academic work on Foucault and contemporary theology

Modernism After the Death of God Stephen Kern, 2017-11-22 Modernism After the Death of God explores the work of seven influential modernists Friedrich Nietzsche James Joyce D H Lawrence Andr Gide and Martin Heidegger criticized the destructive impact that they believed Christian sexual morality had had or threatened to have on their love life Although not a Christian Freud criticized the negative effect that Christian sexual morality had on his clinical subjects and on Western civilization while Virginia Woolf condemned how her society was sanctioned by a patriarchal Christian authority All seven worked to replace the loss or absence of Christian unity with non

Christian unifying projects in their respective fields of philosophy psychiatry or literature The basic structure of their main contributions to modernist culture was a dynamic interaction of radical fragmentation necessitating radical unification that was always in process and never complete

Put Away Your Sword Michael L. Budde, 2024-03-11 What does it mean to follow the Prince of Peace in a world plagued by war violence and killing Can the foundational convictions of Christianity and the experiences of Christians around the world contribute to a more adequate practice of the faith in contemporary times on matters of war violence and peacemaking This volume addresses these important questions with contributions from Christian scholars and practitioners from across the Majority World including El Salvador Brazil Kenya and the Philippines and from the United States and Europe They include proponents of Christian pacifism and just war theory advocates for varieties of just peacemaking frameworks and people pursuing slow modest steps toward reconciling enemies without the use of overarching theoretical frameworks What holds them together is a sense that the world and the church would benefit from a robust and gospel based commitment to nonviolence as an alternative to lethal business as usual in addressing conflicts great and small The topics they consider include constructive aspects of a Christian theology of nonviolence case studies of gospel nonviolence and pastoral work from violent conflicts around the world women as victims of violence and makers of peace and theopolitical questions of just war armed intervention and Christian nonviolence
